Daughters of Knox

Group enjoys choir

The Daughters of Knox held their regular meeting on May 4 in the Presbyterian Church with the Junior Choir as their guests. The meeting started at 7:30 p.m. with the choir singing four numbers which were enjoyed by all. The group then served chocolate cake and milk to the children to show their appreciation to them for the different times they have come to sing. Roll call was answered with each member turning in used stamps and an item for the craft table. Gladys Price gave a report on the Easter breakfast that was served to the Sunday School. Murdina Brown followed with a report on the April euchre; Jane Robertson on the CGIT; Anne Moore on the Explorer Group and Mardini Brown on the Boys' Brigade. Members were reminded of the breakfast the Young People were serving in the Sunday School Room hoping all who could would attend to help the teenagers with this project. The president then reported on the 34th Synodical meeting. Three members were appointed to look after the coffee hour after church each Sunday for
