 returned as president, Dadds as first vice, John Cadenhead as second vice, Fran McKnight as secretary and Yalowica as treasurer.
 The only change has Jackie Phelan stepping down as secretary.
 No other slate was presented at the poorly-attended meeting, so the executive was voted in by acclamation.
 But Cargill said the Association still needs nine directors; one for each team, to act as a liaison between coach and players, coach, players and parents and team and Association. Anyone wishing to become a director he added, should contact the executive.

Kovacs qualifies

Adrienne Kovacs of Acton qualified for the Ontario Long Course Age Group Championships in the 200 metre butterfly with a personal best of 2:51.75 at the Region of Waterloo Long Course Invitational swim meet last weekend.
 Kovacs moved up to the girls' 11-12 age group for the event, placing third in the preliminaries and sixth overall.
 Friday, Kovacs swam a 6:08.49, her best time in the 400 metre individual medley to qualify in the girls' 11-12 category as well.
 Kovacs swims out of the Guelph Marlins, one of the 23 clubs competing at the meet, held at Wilfred Laurier University pool.

Midgets nipped

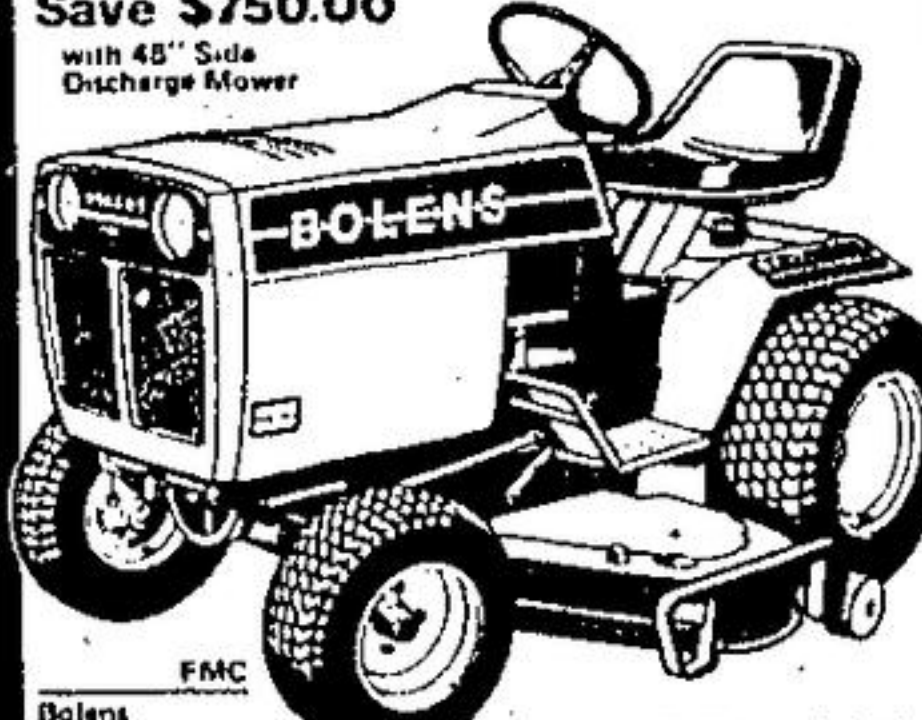

AHS midgets were nipped 8-7 by a strong M.M. Robinson team Thursday night in exhibition ruggar action in Acton.
 Coach Rick McArthur said the team played a good game all round. Richard Kilpatrick scored three points on a penalty kick and Scott Allonby raised the score four more on a try.
 The juniors were downed 13-3, their only three points coming from a successful penalty kick by Dave Entwistle.

Blue Fins
 Some 50 swimmers from the Blue Fins and several high school team members took part in last Sunday's swimathon to raise funds for the swim team.
 The club expects to raise approximately $1,500 from this venture.
 The Halton Hills Blue Fins were out in force recently when the 'A' club and Recreation team travelled to two meets in Burlington.

 LADIES WELCOMED

"Meet The Metros"
 Dennis 'Butch' Jennings had the honor of throwing the first no-hitter in this year's Acton Industrial Fastball League action as he led his Acton Free Press - Georgetown Independent sponsored Matros to a 2-0 win over Desmond's Tack Shop.
 Butch graduated from the Acton Midgets and in his second season of men's league ball.
 The 19 year old Jennings is playing left field and pitching for the Metros. He has hurled 11 Innings to date and hasn't allowed a run.
