Vandal campers mar conservation trail

by Barbara Funk

Don Mochrie from Grand River Conservation has asked me to make an appeal to the public concerning vandalism in the park.

It is impossible for the park staff to be everywhere at once and with the help of the public will they be able to control vandalism.

This past week-end for example three trespassers made camp in the park.

After consuming a great deal of beer they smashed these bottles, scattering glass amongst the camp-sites and walk-ways.

It took two staff members more than an hour to clean up a few minutes of malicious fun.

The First Rockwood Brownies held their final meeting at the Everton Scout Camp where they had a picnic.

Four girls received their Golden Hands and wings to fly up to Guides.

They were Kristina Ingleson, Sandra Jestin, Sherry Lawlor, and Leah Lockertie. Golden Ladders were received by Trudy Milne, Mandy Page and Kelly Parkinson.

Those receiving Golden Bars were Brenda Height, Becky Campbell, Jennifer MacLean, Jennifer Vickery, Deanne Rockola, Michelle Lockertie, and Maria McDougall.

The girls also gave a big thanks to the two junior leaders who are leaving this year, Valerie Galley and Kristen English.

The second Rockwood Brownies also held their final meeting with a flying up ceremony. Theresa Rose, Lisa Verhagen, Krissy Ritchie, Janet Verhagen, Heather Wingate, Leanne Ford, Cheryl Thompson, Kim Stevens and Becky Wilson were helped on their flight by District Commissioner Ellen Thompson.

St. John's Church is having a garage sale on Saturday May 23 from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m. at the Parish Hall.

On May 27 at 6 p.m. the Rockwood and Eden Mills Presbyterian Churches are having an auction sale. The auctioneer will be Max Storey and the sale will be at the Eden Mills church.

Fire Chief Carl Meadows reports three fires this past week. Two were rubbish fires and the third was at Cox's Meats where the meat smoker overheated.

Pat Dales of the Rockwood Trail Riders took first in the heavyweight class and reserve sweepstakes at a trail ride held at the Vivian Forest near Stouffville over the weekend. The ride was sponsored by the Ontario Trail Riders.

Ospringe

by Doris Fines
A mammoth parent night was staged last Tuesday evening, when the Ospringe Guides, Brownies, Scouts and Cubs, joined forces and invited their mothers and father for a banquet.

Head table guests were District Commissioner Ellen Thomson, Reverend Noble Dean, Brenda Dean, and the leaders for the four packs.

Rev. Dean dedicated the flags, which were presented by two Guides, Melissa and Michelle Mathies, and two Brownies, Sarah Nijhuis and Kim Swackhamer.

District Commissioner Ellen Thomson presented a bar and pin to Brown Owl Doris Swackhamer, in appreciation to five years leadership of the Brownies.

Peter Dubeau was master of ceremonies. He introduced the head table guests.

The Guides sang a song, then Frank Misurka led in a round robin story.

Judy Paterson had everyone form a circle around the room, and led in a sing song.

Rev. Dean closed with a beautiful prayer while everyone hummed the tune of the last song, in the background.

Ospringe school borrowed a button machine last week, and each class had a day to bring in slogans and photos, to have their own personal buttons made up.

Rock-a-Long W.I. meets

Rock-a-Long WI held its May meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Bayne with nine members present.

The Opening Ode was sung to the tune of Amazing Grace with Mrs. Ramsden at the piano. Mrs. Spence, president, read a poem "That's Success".

The Green Thumb meeting was handled by Mrs. J. Glendenning. It began with the Roll Call "Name an edible weed" which was well answered. The motto was read—Whatever a man soweth so shall he reap.

The WI had a fine table of plants, bulbs, seeds for which they sold penny tickets and each member went home with a planting of her choice. The meeting closed with 'O' Canada and a social half hour enjoyed.
