

The Joyce Aklit Travel League held its awards night at the Legion Saturday. The playoff champs were the Road Runners. They are, from left to right, Loejse Kutanslenski, Helen Creighton, Debbie Greer and Anne Fitzner. Missing was Anne Reynolds.

League individual awards were also given out at the banquet. In the rear row, left to right, is high average Bev Owen, high single with handicap Anne Greer and high triple Loejse Kutanslenski. In the front, high triple with handicap Allison Willmott, lowest game of year Mary-Ellen Barnes and high single Marilyn Briggs. Mary-Ellen Barnes also won the Ken Hulford Memorial Trophy.

The 747 team in the Aklit Travel league was composed of captain Irene Hahn, Wand Almand, Mary-Ellen Barnes and Allison Willmott.

Free Press

sports and recreation

One hundred and sixth year—Number 45

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1981

Second Section

Bray, Astros honored at town's recognition night

Mark Beaton, Don Coats and Dave Hobden, the crew of the Soling Obelix, were honored at the banquet Wednesday. They sailed to sixth place in the Canada Olympic Race last August, the third-fastest in Canada.

The Acton Astros pee-wee soccer team gather after receiving their pins and certificates last Wednesday. On the team are Brian Bellert, Ronnie Vanitem, Steven Kelly, Stewart Hoy, Peter Wright, Emil Milnarevic, Richard Kilpatrick, Bradley Youmans, Tom Kranendonk, Jamie Taras, Mark Spilner, Adriano Buzzin, David Van Rhijn, Mike Hudson, Richard Kilpatrick Sr. (manager), Durt Vanema (assistant coach) and Sandy Hudson (coach). The Astros captured the provincial Beatrice Cup last August.

Several local athletes and an entire minor soccer team were honored last Wednesday at the Halton Hills Honor and Recognition night at Gordon Alcott arena in Georgetown.

Mark Bray, Teresa Dunn, Mark Beaton, Don Coats, Dave Hobden, Sylvia Mages of Acton and Sara Aggis of Limehouse as well as the Acton Astros pee-wee soccer team were given Halton Hills pins and certificates for their achievements.

Several local people involved in cultural activities were honored as well as athletes and artists from Georgetown.

Swimmer Mark Bray was honored for his performance on the Ontario all-star swim team in 1980. He also swam on the national team and travelled to Hellburg, Germany for an international meet.

There the national team defeated both West Germany and Russia.

Bray was ranked second in Canada in the 100 metre butterfly and the 50 metre free-style last year and third in the 200 butterfly. He was also ranked in the top 10 in all other swimming events.

At the provincials he won five gold medals and at the division two nationals held in Montreal, he ranked third in Canada.

It's the second time Bray was honored for his outstanding feats. Last year he won the Royal Bank Trophy as Halton Hills Athlete of the Year 1980.

Sara Aggis of Limehouse, has been competing in gymnastics at various levels since 1973, presently with the Cambridge Kips. During 1980 she passed national level testing for one, two and three, placed eighth at the Canadian Selection meet in February, fourth in the Ontario senior provincials in April and 10th at the Canadian Olympic trials in August.

She placed first in the all-around Canada-America games in August and recently returned from international competition in Europe.

Teresa Dunn is an excellent all-round athlete, but this year she was honored for her five-pin bowling achievements.

She reached the five-pin regional competition last March before advancing to the provincial championship where she won a silver medal. Teresa bowls out of Acton Bowling Lanes.

Sylvia Mages is another local bowler honored. She teamed with Georgetown's Joan Archibald and formed part of the five-member provincial team that reached the Canadian Masters in Vancouver last year. There Mages won a gold medal as part of the team, but also with a fourth-place finish overall.

Mark Beaton, Don Coats and Dave Hobden are the crew of the Obelix, a Soling. Olympic Soling is the largest class in sailboat racing and also one of the most difficult.

The trio placed sixth in the Canadian Olympic race in Kingston last August, and were the third-fastest Canadians.

They and the Obelix are ranked among the best in Canada.

The Acton Astros pee-wees defeated Bradford and Dundas in the finals to capture the Ontario Beatrice Cup last September.

On the team are Brian Bellert, Ronnie Vanitem, Steven Kelly, Stewart Hoy, Peter Wright, Emil Milnarevic, Richard Kilpatrick, Bradley Youmans, Tom Kranendonk, Jamie Taras, Mark Spilner, Adriano Buzzin, David Van Rhijn, Mike Hudson, Richard Kilpatrick Sr. (manager), Durt

Vanema (assistant coach) and Sandy Hudson (coach).

Other Actonians honored were Dr. George Elliot and Ted Hansen.

Georgetown athletes honored were Kris Barber and Kelly Johnson for figure skating, Bob Danell for running, John Gibson, who also founded the Canadian and Ontario Amputee Sports Associations as well as travelled to Holland for the Olympics for the physically disabled, Sue and Rob

Masson for swimming, David Watson figure skating, and Lise Smith and Doug Smith and Lynn MacPhail for high school track and field.

Teams include the Glen Williams pee-wee boys for softball, Georgetown major atom allstar team for hockey, the Georgetown Tykes for baseball, Doug Gillespie, Geoff Knight, Steve Power, Mike Sweezie, Gord Savage, Dave Power, Wayne Morrow and Continued on B2

Acton councillor Dave Whiting presents Mark Bray with his certificate and pin at the Halton Hills Honor and Recognition banquet last Wednesday night in Georgetown. Bray won honors for his swimming feats. He is also Halton Hills Athlete of the year 1980.

Top 21 qualify for Peel-Haltons

Acton High School sent 21 athletes to the Peel-Halton track and field championships yesterday (Tuesday) at Etobicoke Olympia after qualifying with top showings at the Haltons a week earlier.

AHS captured three events, as well as placed second in five more and nabbed a third.

George Gidman placed first in the junior boys 400 metre run with a time of 53 seconds. He also took fifth in the junior boys 800 at 2:08 minutes, qualifying for the Peel-Halton's in both.

Clifford Nibbs won the midget boys long jump with a leap of 5.30 metres, as well as finishing fifth in the midget boys 100 metre at 12.3 seconds, while the junior boys relay team of Mike Mooney, Les Dobisz, Gidman and Nibbs were tops in the 4 x 100 relay with a time of 47 seconds.

Gord March also had a strong showing with two second place finishes in both the midget boys 400 and 200 metre runs. He finished the 200 metre in 25.4 seconds.

Dobisz placed second in the junior boys triple jump at 11.50 metres, while Don Weaver placed second in junior boys pole vaulting with a nine metre leap.

Norman Bourassa also came second in the senior boys pole vault at 9.4 while Sandra Brundie came third in the junior girls javelin with a toss of 28.55 metres. All qualified for yesterday's meet.

Other qualifiers were Rick Dodds, Dobisz, Kay Duess, Andrea Arbie, Carrie Kerton, Linda Osso, Rick Papillon and Debbie Baum.

Dodds placed sixth in both the midget boys shotput and 800 metre run. Papillon placed sixth in junior boys shotput at 7.80 while Dobisz placed fourth in the junior boys 100 metre run at 11.6 seconds.

Duess finished fourth in the senior girls 3,000 metre with 14:25 minutes, and in the javelin with a toss of 21.09.

Osso placed fifth in the junior girls shotput, tossing it 8.17 metres and sixth in the discus at 22.50.

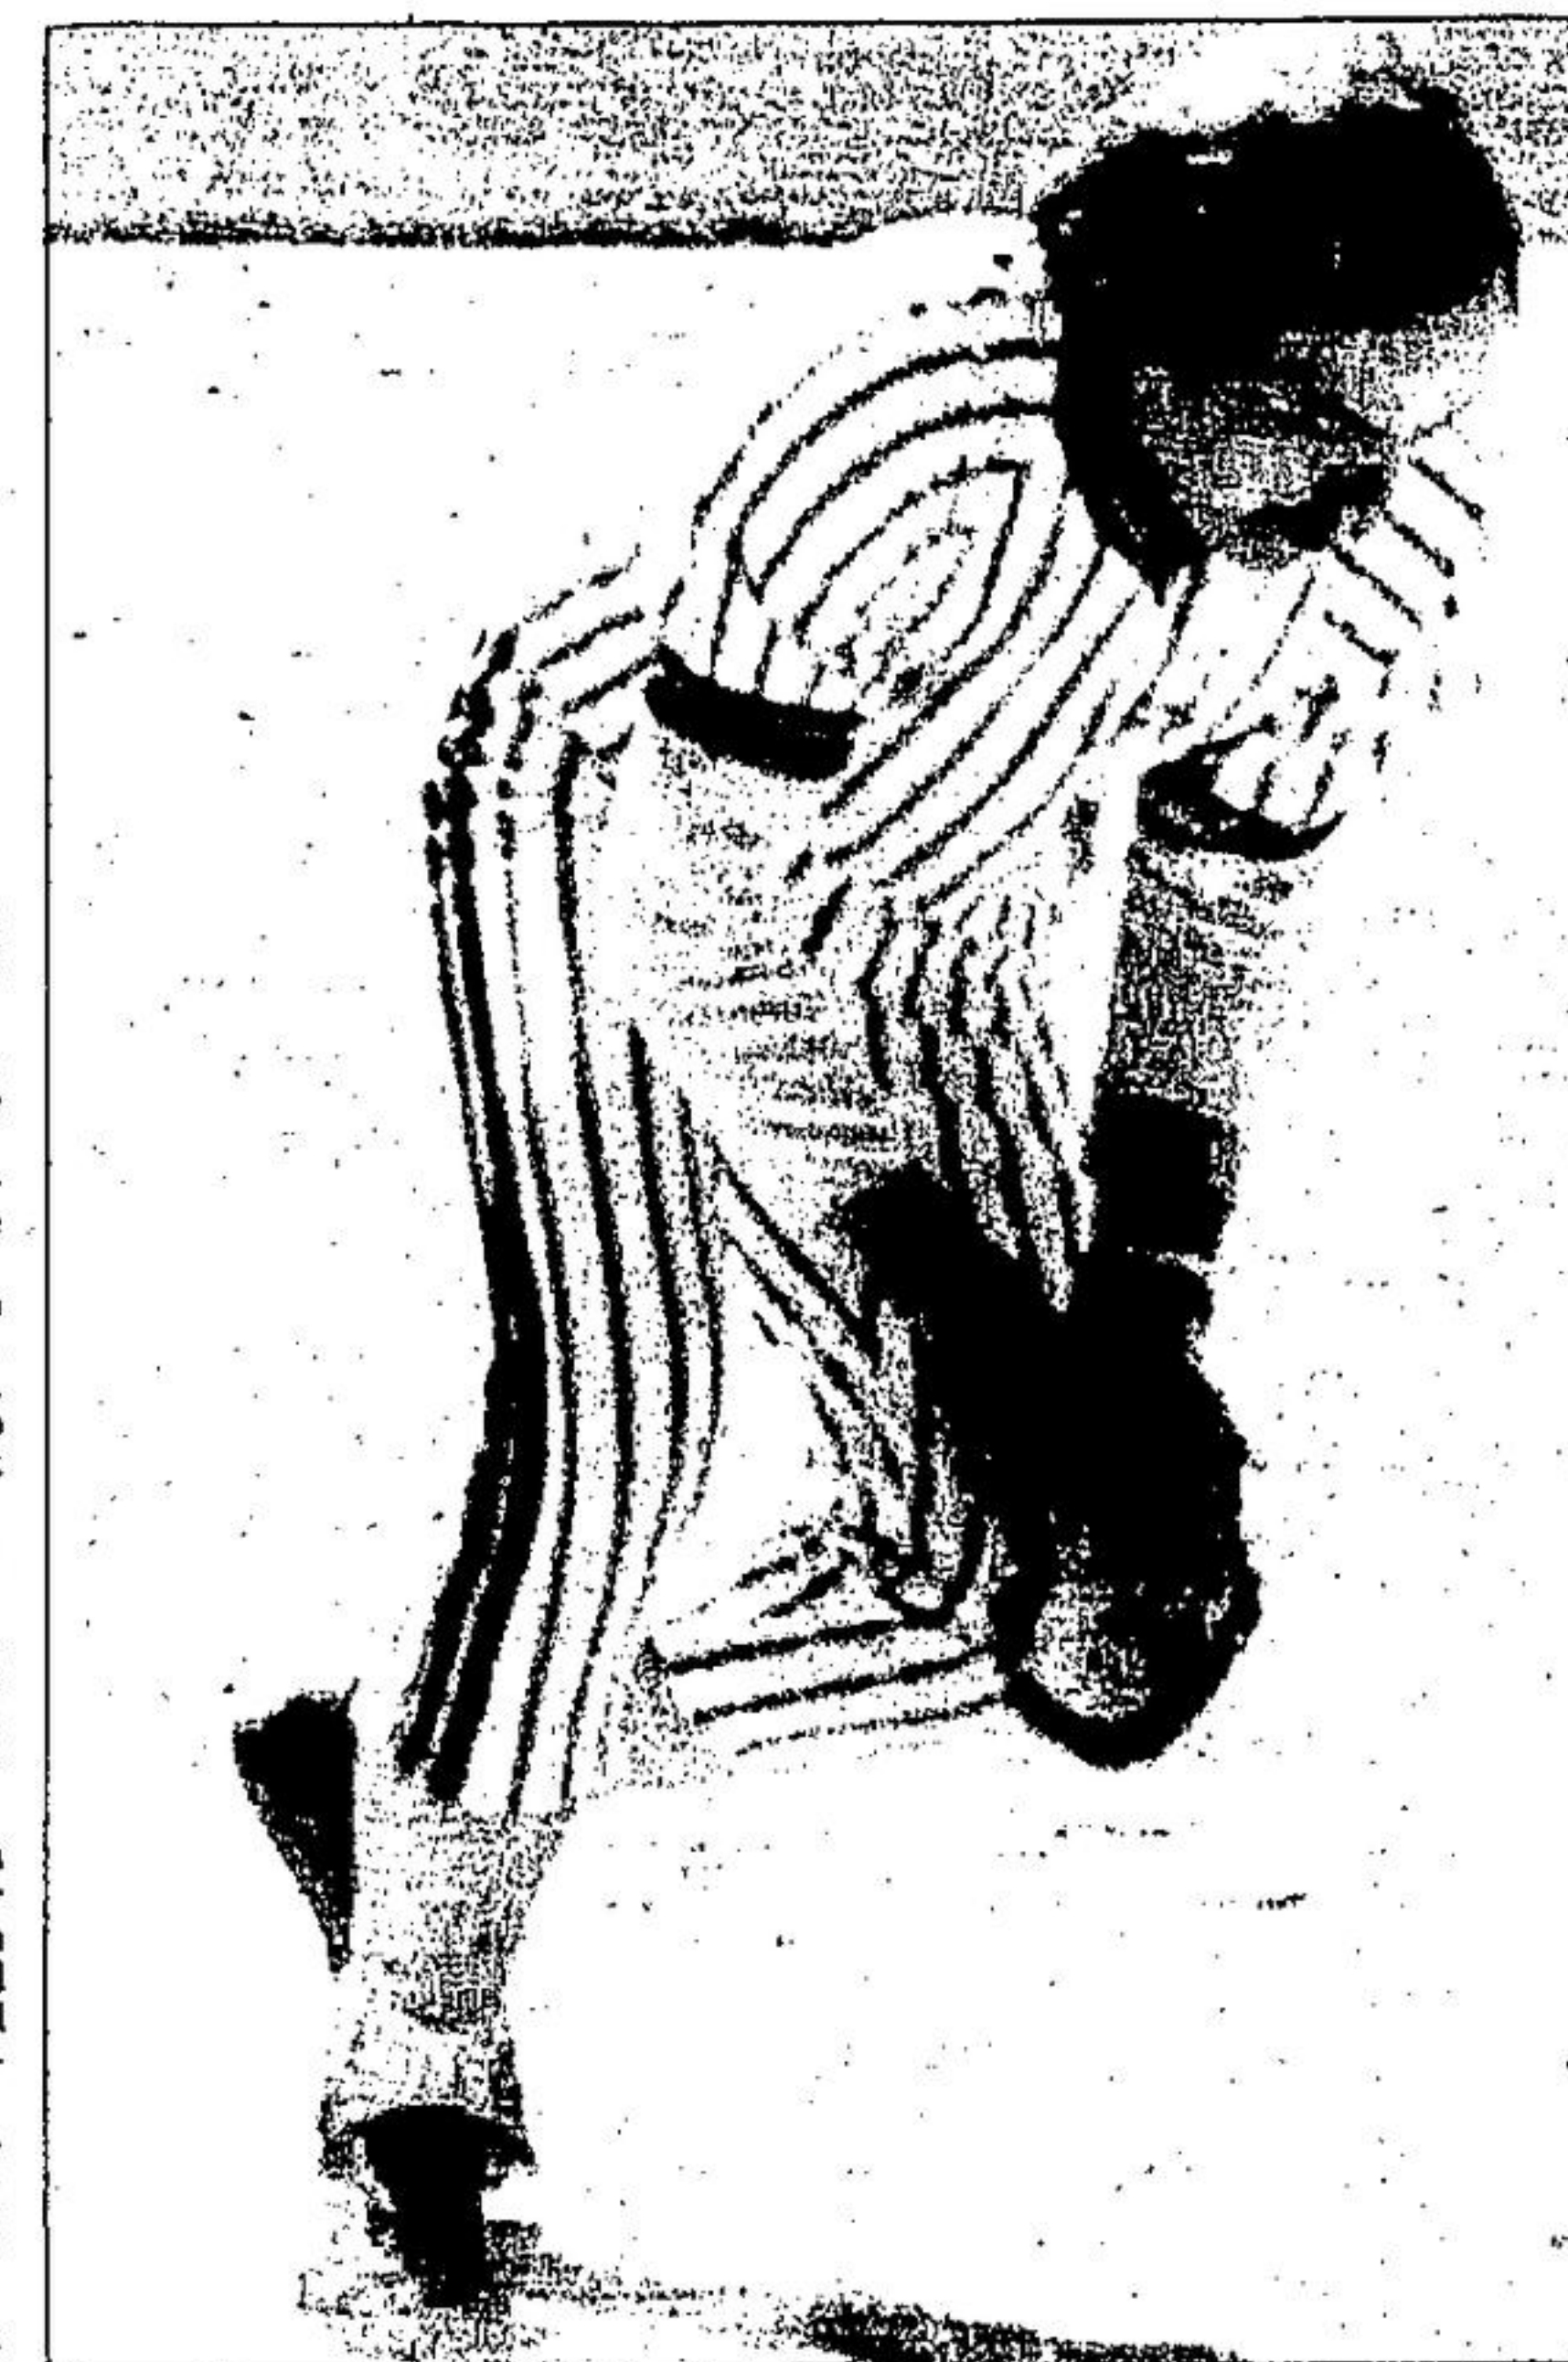

Arbie came fourth in midget girls' javelin at 25.71, while Kerton placed sixth at 24.66. Baum qualified in the midget girls discus, finishing fourth at 20.80 metres. She also competed in the midget girls shotput but failed to qualify.

Tom McDonough finished fifth behind Dobisz in the junior boys 100 metre at 11.7 seconds, but missed out on the qualifications. Other competitors who failed to qualify included Andrea Jenkinson who came seventh at 25.88 in junior girls' javelin, and ninth in discus at 20.20.

Teresa Dunn, Judy Vetrichek, Shirley Van Rijke competed in the midget and junior girls long jump, while Mooney competed in junior boys. Papillon and Paul Nolan failed to qualify in the junior boys discus and Debbie Pane, who placed ninth, did not advance in midget girls discus.

As well, the midget girl relay team of Sally Briggs, Arbie, Mandy Silcocks and Dunn placed seventh in the 4 x 100 while the junior boys failed in the 4 x 100 metre relay.

The Peel-Haltons were held yesterday at Etobicoke with results unavailable by press time. Top finishers there will go on to the regionals next Thursday, May 28.

Rick Bonnette of Halton Hills Electric makes a catch during Monday's match with Desmond's in Acton Industrial fastball action. Desmond won the game however, 5-1.

Roadrunners leading

The top two teams in the Acton men's industrial fastball league widened the gap between them and the rest of the squads after weekend action.

Dave Real Estate Roadrunners hold first place with 14 points, four more than second place Metros and six more than third place Firestone Oldtimers, picking up several more victories this week.

They downed Unisal 8-1 in six innings of play Thursday night at Prospect Park. Monday they defeated Halton Hills Furniture 5-1. Chris Tennant banged a homer in Monday's match sending Gary Moore and Don Richards across the plate to clinch the victory in the sixth.

Mike Morris was Furniture's lone runner. Firestone blasted the Bears 17-6 in the next game Sunday. Big swingers were Vince Thornton with two singles and a double, Don Archibald, Gary Masales, Fred Archibald, Ray Graham, and Doug Pratt with doubles.

Bill Britton banged a triple while Sid Barends popped off two doubles for the Bears.

Metros played an extra inning to capture a 9-4 victory over Unisal in the final game Sunday. The game was tied 4-4 at the bottom of the eighth when Metros came up with five runs. Roy Spear, Gerry Marshall, Dave Mills and Mark Williamson touched home for the scores.

Glen McKenzie, Roy Bosch, Willi Geelan, and Paul Campbell were the Unisal runners.

Desmond's Tack Shop blasted Halton Hills Electric 5-1 in the other game Monday at Prospect Park.

Tonight Unisal and Desmond's square off, 8:30 p.m. at Prospect Park. Tomorrow night (Thursday) Fread and Halton Hills Electric meet, and Saturday night at 7 p.m. has Fread and Halton Hills Furniture stepping up to bat. Sunday's line-up includes Electric and Furniture Roadrunners and Metros, Oldtimers and Desmond's followed by Fread and Bears. Games start at 2 p.m. at Prospect Park.

Midgets reach provincial finals

The AHS midget rugby squad qualified for the all-Ontario high school championships last week by reaching the finals of the seven-aside tournament.

Midgets defeated Central Peel, Chinguacousy B, Centennial A and Centennial to reach the finals. There they lost to Chinguacousy A.

Coach Rick McArthur said his team played "super" for five games. Scott Altonby, Peter Faber, Paul Cargill, Rick Kilpatrick, Blake Norton and Darren Wrigglesworth were outstanding, he added.

The rugby championships are held May 28 at Centennial Vocational school in Guelph.

The juniors meanwhile, were eliminated from further competition in the quarter-finals of the tournament, losing to Chinguacousy, and Humberview after defeating Bramalea.

McArthur singled out Jock Garten, Roy Spear, Gary Lumbers, Mark Staley and Gord Glenn for praise.

In regular action, juniors picked up a 22-0 victory over Brampton Centennial Thursday. Garten, Spears, and Mark Duval scored on tries.

David Entwistle added three converts. Peter Neillspach and Altonby scored on tries in the midget's 8-0 game over Brampton Centennial, also on Thursday.

Midgets and juniors face Central Peel in their next match this week. Thursday they step out against Chinguacousy at AHS.

Industrial fastball standings

As of May 12, 1981

TEAM	GP	W	L	T	F	A	P
Dave R. E.	7	7	0	0	62	7	14
H. H. Metros	6	5	1	0	38	16	10
Firestone O'timers	6	4	2	0	49	41	8
Fread Const.	3	2	1	0	18	10	4
H. H. Furniture	5	2	3	0	42	31	4
Desmond's Tack Shop	5	1	4	0	10	27	2
Unisal Const.	5	1	4	0	16	33	2
H. H. Electric	5	1	4	0	20	47	2
N. H. Sports	7	1	6	0	42	79	2