Churchill

Church marks its 143rd anniversary

Anniversary services were held at Churchill Community Church on Sunday, May 31, celebrating 143 years that the little white church on the hill has been a centre of worship.

Rev. Emrys Jenkins introduced the guest speaker, his friend, James Taylor, retiring managing editor of the United Church Observer.

Mr. Taylor's theme in the morning was brotherly love as demonstrated by one's active concern for the poor and needy in other countries as well as our own.

Anniversaries are a time, not only for looking back, but also for making plans.

He likened the modern Christian's enthusiastic and enlightened participation in God's plan for the world to the fervor of the disciples at Pentecost.

Mr. Taylor continued in the same vein at the evening service as he commented on pictures filmed in Nyassaland, Brazil and Haiti.

He pointed out the contrast between the lives of the rich and the poor in these countries, and showed how the church in its mission program is assisting poverty-stricken villagers to work together to supply clean water, to work the land and to market their produce co-operatively, and to conduct a fishing operation collectively.

Mr. Taylor visited these areas, so spoke knowledgeably of conditions there, and the slides were most explicit—altogether an excellent message.

Special music for both services was provided by the regular choir, singing four special anthems.

In the evening Mr. Emrys Jenkins Sr. sang a beautiful old favorite, "How Great Thou Art", with the choir assisting in the refrain. Organist Mrs. Marie Anderson accompanied the singing, assisted in the evening by Mrs. Olga Thompson on the Piano.

Following the morning service, lunch was served by the ladies of the church, giving old friends an opportunity to visit, and also to meet Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held at the home of Mrs. Sisko Kockx last Wednesday evening to honor bride-to-be Jackie Denny. After an hour of games, fun and laughter, Jackie opened some lovely and useful gifts, assisted by three school friends. Then she put on her beehived hat and cut the beautifully decorated cake while cameras clicked. The evening ended with a delicious lunch served by hostesses Stella Wallace and Sisko and Helen Kockx.

John Thompson, Acton is on a three-day trip to Pennsylvania.

While there he will tour the plant where Armstrong Flooring is manufactured in Lancaster, Penn., and also see a major league baseball game. John is an employee at Co-op Home Centre, Guelph.

We are happy to welcome to the community Ray and Mary Piercy and their baby daughter. They are building a house on a lot at the corner of the Milne farm on the Third Line, and are living in a trailer there until their new home is finished.

Rumble who gave a stirring message.

The deaf truly have a great friend in this kindly man.

The ladies of the church served a tasty salad luncheon following the service.

Rain again dampened the air for the ball tournament but not the spirits of the players and the games went on.

The scores were as follows: Guelph Optical over Brookville 4-3; Aberfoyle over I.T.T. 9-5; Dickie Aluminium over Millgrove 5-2; Raggs for Men over Carlisle 7-0; Hydra-Aire over Hillsburg 7-2; Rockwood over Morrison 5-2; Guelph Optical over Aberfoyle 4-3; Raggs for Men over Dickie Aluminium 3-2; Hydra-Aire over Rockwood 3-2; Raggs over Guelph Optical 8-0; Hydra-Aire over Raggs 10-3.

Ebenezer

By Mrs. R. McLean
Mr. Finley's topic was "Better than Righteousness" and dealt with the parable of the Prodigal Son.

When the father went out to meet the younger son returning, it is an example how God goes miles to meet a repentant sinner. The two sons represent the two kinds of religion: the younger, the sinners and publicans, the elder, the scribes and Pharisees. The Pharisees make keeping the law to the letter more important than the spirit of the law. Unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees you can never enter the kingdom of God.

The elder son obeyed the rules, but inwardly, he seethed with resentment.

Jesus takes all the "Thou shalt nots" and puts them into one great command. Goodness must reach out and draw others with it. This is where the elder brother failed.

Love your enemies but do not love those of your own nation. Your neighbor is anyone who is in need.

Do not become so self righteous that you fail to reach out.

The Youth Group is sponsoring a spaghetti supper on Thursday, at 5:30 and 7:00 p.m.

Mrs. Keith Moore had the misfortune to fall and break a wrist.

The biennial cemetery service is Sunday afternoon, June 14.

Terry Anthony, left, a student minister for the summer will take over the Presbyterian church congregations in Rockwood and Eden Mills starting June 7. Miss Anthony, from St. Lambert Que., will be taking services because Rev. Carrie Doehring and husband Mark Jones are expecting their first child in July. Miss Anthony who studies at McGill University, visited the congregations in April. Rev. Doehring has been the congregations' minister for three years.

Grade 8 class visits Ottawa

By Barbara Funk
The Rockwood Horticultural Club is having a flower arrangement demonstration on Wednesday June 10 at 8 p.m. at the Town Hall.

Now is a good time to learn how to arrange all these flowers we'll be growing in our gardens this summer. There is no admission charge and all those who are interested are welcome.

Anyone needing their vehicle washed this week-end will be able to have it done for them at a nominal fee.

The Rockwood and District Leos are having a car wash at the Ball Park on Saturday June 6 from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m.

Cars will be washed for $1, pick-up trucks for $2, and $5 for buses. There will be an extra charge of a dollar if you wish to have the interior vacuumed.

The Grade 8 graduating class of Rockwood Centennial School spent four days in the nation's capital last week.

Some of the places visited were Government House (the Governor General's residence), The National Arts Centre, The Mint, The War Museum, The National Museum of Science and Technology,

The Aeronautical Museum, and of course, The Parliament Buildings.

MP Jim Schroeder met the class in a committee room and spoke to them about an MP's day. He presented the class with a Canadian flag and lapel pins as a memento of their visit.

The graduates were also well received at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Stables. Sgt. Dupuis answered questions concerning the police force and showed a film on the work behind the musical ride. The sergeant sent home two records for the school with the class.

On the way home a stop was made at Upper Canada Village where everyone got thoroughly drenched in the rain. Half an hour after leaving the village the sun came out and shone the rest of the way home.

Each day was packed with places to see and many miles were walked, but everyone, chaperones included, felt they learned something new about their country's history, past and present.

The Grade 8s raised the money for this annual trip during the year with various projects.

Chaperones for the trip were teachers, Bob Love,

Mona Storey, Betty Post, and mothers and friends, Evelyn Farr, Mary Rowan, Margaret English, Donna Ford and yours truly.

Please call Barbara Funk at 856-4801 with any news or up-coming events.
