

Most improved and outstanding athlete awards at AHS went to, left to right, Terry Cianfarani, Norman Bourassa, Heather Thatcher and Andrea Arbic.

Most Valuable player and outstanding athlete awards went to the following Acton High School sports stars. Front row, left to right, Jane Trueman, Cathy Grandy, Teresa Dunn, Kelly White, Sandra Brundle, Cindy Brouillard, and Heather Thatcher. Back row, Norman Bourassa, Randy Laver, Jock Garten, David Entwistle, Bob McClure, George Gidman, Harold Koehler, Tony Wright and Scott Allonby.

Bourassa, Thatcher honored as AHS best

Norm Bourassa and Heather Thatcher captured the outstanding male and female athletes awards for 1980-81 at Acton High School. The awards were presented at a banquet Thursday at the Acton Legion. Bourassa was a very busy athlete, as well as a skilled athlete, participating in cross country, swimming, gymnastics, track and field and serving as a captain of the Athletic Society.

Thatcher was a star for the cross country and swim teams.

Terry Cianfarani was awarded the most improved male athlete honor for his efforts with the junior boys basketball team the past season.

A top player with the junior girls' basketball team gymnastics squad, track and field team and badminton club, Andrea Arbic was chosen the most improved female athlete.

The Bill Spehar Trophy for outstanding contributions to school athletics and organization was won jointly by Colleen Crimless and Corrina Moreau.

Most valuable players and outstanding athletes awards went to the following students for various sports: Jane Trueman-girls' badminton; Cathy Grandy-female swimmer; Teresa Dunn-junior girls' basketball; Kelly White-senior girls' basketball; Sandra Brundle-girls' track and field; Cindy Brouillard-girls' gymnastics; Heather Thatcher-girls' cross country; Norman Bourassa-boys' swimming; Randy Laver-midget boys basketball; Jock Garten-junior boys rugby; David Entwistle-junior boys' basketball; Bob McClure-senior boys' basketball; George Gidman-male track and field;

Harold Koehler-boys' badminton; Scott Allonby-midget boys' rugby; David McGregor-male cross country.

Tony Wright was honored as the outstanding intramural participant while the Red team won the intramurals championship and the Green team the intramurals attendance championship.

Free Press sports and recreation

One Hundred and Sixth Year — No. 47 Acton, Ontario, Wednesday, June 3, 1981 Second Section

High doubles and triple awards went to front row l. to r. Julie Heatley, Beverly Dunn, Angela Dunn, back row, Graham White, Richard Cripps and Jason Campbell.

The Colts emerged from the pack to claim the Acton YBC play-off championship. Pictured with Coach of the Year Dee Deforest are Richard Cripps, David Ruse, Kelly Harrison, Beverly Dunn, Robert Jennings and Darcey Thornton.

High single shooters in the YBC program this season were front row l. to r. Rita Bottero, Peggy Warford, back row, Tom Shannon, Gordon Hollett and David Deforest. Missing is Lisa Thomas.

YBC presents annual awards

Additional pictures on p. 4, and more pictures next week

The Pawns took all the marbles in the YBC Senior division capturing both the league and play-off championship. Team members include Gail Robb, Bruce Shannon, Lisa McCristall, Graham White, and Steve Matheson. The team took the titles without a coach.

The YBC Bantam league champs were honored for their achievement over the bowling season. Team members included Angela Dunn, Amanda Walton, Dana Petrillo, Morgan Vaughan, Jason Johnston and coach Dee Deforest. Missing is team captain Michael Butler.

High average winners in the different YBC divisions this season included front row l. to r. Teresa Dunn, Linda Bottero, Tracey Wrigglesworth, back row, Bruce Shannon, Stewart Hoy and Kevin Fabian