

Marauders whip Rockwood twice

The Marauders downed Rockwood twice in a row in Acton Ladies' Powder Puff League action last week.

Up in Rockwood Saturday the ladies rolled up a 31-10 win to go with their previous nip and tuck 16-14 victory.

Phyllis Garrett led the scoring for Acton in the 31-10 romp. She connected for a homer plus a two base hit. Cathy Coles and Karen Smith blasted a triple sacker each while Cheryl DaPonte and Kim Young two doubles each. Shirley White had a two base hit.

Darlene Cox slammed a homer for the host squad. Maria Reid pulled off a three base hit while Diane Laur had a two base hit.

For the 16-14 cliff hanger the Marauders had to come up with 11 runs in the bottom of the 7th inning for the win. Rockwood led 14-5 in their half of the frame.

Many companies share in the sponsoring of the team. They include The Olde Hide House, County Custom Upholstery, Tri-Co Lighting, Brodrecht Trucking, Mike's Barber and Styling Shop and The Acton Free Press.

Extra innings needed in industrial ball play

The Firestone Oldtimers and Halton Hills Electric were forced into extra innings for their Sunday afternoon Industrial ball match in the park.

It wasn't until a late frame that the oldsters managed to snuff the 9-6 win.

Gary Masales came through with three runs for the Oldtimers. Frank Daley retired five Electrician batters. Many Gary Masales came through with three runs for the Oldtimers. Frank Daley retired five Electrician batters. Many others just popped out.

Guy Payne was the losing chucker. The Oldtimers led through the game. Payne connected for two runs. An electrician's four run rally in the seventh proved to be too little too late.

The Roadrunners continued to wrack up the opposition Sunday with their tenth win in a row for the season. They ate up Desmond's Tack Shop by a 12-1 margin.

M. Grenke took credit for the win.

Also Sunday, the Metros blanked Unisal Construction by seven runs.

Metro's chucker Dick

Spear slammed a second frame homer which put the game out of sight. Dave Mills accounted for two runs while singles came from Tim Evans, Roy Spear, Frank Robinson and designated hitter Robin Inscoc.

The Metros creamed Halton Hills Furniture 10-3 during Wednesday night action.

A twice tied game was finally nipped by Erin over Acton in Ladies Fastball action last Tuesday (June 2) in Prospect Park.

Carol Jordan and Jan Inglis shared the chucking duties for the night. Acton played catch up ball, and did just that twice, however they were unable to take the lead.

Inglis, Susan Paulsen, Carol Paisley, Claire Merriman, Vicki Landborough and Wendy

Ron spent last season helping out the Roadrunners and following their travels in Georgetown but chose to get involved in the running of things this year and offered his assistance to the Metros.

This week the manager of the Metros received a special honor for his work around town by being named Acton's Citizen of the Year. Congratulations Ron!

A Dramatic Demonstration

It's often assumed that people with mental or physical disabilities cannot participate in today's complex society.

As a symbolic gesture in this International Year, we've done something out of the ordinary: we've produced a television commercial - just to set the record straight.

Consider this. Of the 68 people involved in our production, 42 are mentally or physically disabled: among them, the director, the cameraman, the set designer and the carpenters, the electrician, the make-up artist, the sound engineer, the announcer, many of the musicians and the man who wrote the music, who was deaf - but is better remembered for being Beethoven.

If you've seen the commercial, you've seen what happens when we work together. If you haven't seen it yet, it's a dramatic demonstration of a single simple point: disabled people should be thought of for what they can do, rather than what they can't. Our slogan, created by a man with a disability, sums it up and says it all: "label us able!"
