Eden Mills

Moms, daughters banquet

By Mrs. G. MacDougall
The Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders ended their season with a lovely Mother and Daughter Banquet. Two special guests were Karen Billings, Division Commissioner and Ellen Thompson, District

Commissioner. Some of the Brownies received badges for Weaving, Holiday, Dancing and Baker and some received their Golden Bars. The Guides and Pathfinders also received badges and eight girls were presented with their

All-Round Cords. They are Renette Tarrant; Lisa MacTaggart; Karen Palmer; Valerie Neave, Kristin Clark; Ildiko MacDonald; Yvette Blaakman and Patricia Winter. Two additional Guide leaders and a Pathfinder leader are urgently needed so if anyone is interested, please contact Mrs. Ann Chestworth. Please don't forget the Pioneer Old Tyme Dance will be held at the Eden Mills Community Hall instead of the Rockwood Hall on Friday, June 19. Music is by the Rockwood Sunshine Band and other musicians. Refreshments will be served. Plans to make up a party and attend.

Bannockburn W.I.

Mac Sprowl shows slides of Australia

By Reina Morrison
Bannockburn Women's Institute held their monthly meeting

Tuesday evening, June 9, at the home of Mrs. Bruce Letch. The president opened the meeting with a few special remarks made by Mrs. Diamond, the guest speaker at the Limehouse W.I. 60th anniversary. The roll call 'bring an article suitable for the fall fair display, (woman's work is never done)' was answered by 16 members and two visitors.

to donate $15 to the Baby Show at Acton Fair. Mrs. Gladys Kennedy gave the Motto, a poem, 'My Heart's Garden'. The program for the meeting being Agriculture, Mac Sprowl was invited to show his pictures taken on a trip to Australia last October. Everyone enjoyed the pictures and Gladys Kennedy thanked Mac with a small gift.

The meeting closed with the Institute Grace and The Lord's Prayer. The hostess and her helpers served a bountiful lunch and a social half-hour was enjoyed by everyone.

Ebenezer

By Mrs. Ron McLean
A large crowd attended the cemetery memorial service, at which Rev. Bernie Warren brought an inspiring message. Afterwards, the crowd renewed old acquaintances.

Mrs. Ada Sinclair gave a report of the Institute District Annual held in Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton. Plans were completed for a picnic July 19 at the Halton Agricultural Museum. Members were reminded of the yard and bake sale at the home of Mrs. Ann Hollis, on the fifth line north of Limehouse, beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday, June 20. A motion was passed

The annual strawberry social is planned for June 26, from 5:30 until 8:30 p.m. Guests from Rockwood, Thorold, Arthur Georgetown, Guelph and Toronto helped Ronald and Isobel McLean observe their 40th wedding anniversary. The party was held at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Dorothy and Richard Jones, in Burlington.
