Mrs. Ted Barden attended the grade six graduation party for her grandson, Jimmy Barden at Galt Branchton School.

The Guildes and Pathfinders enjoyed a weekend campout at Blue Springs Camp.

The June meeting of the United Church Women was held at the home of Mrs. Rene Beattie. The president, Mrs. Mabel Parker opened the meeting with a reading "That by which we live" The hymn "Sun of My Soul" was sung.

Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson took the topic from the study, kit of Phillippians, on managing "Remorse and Resentment." They are an expression of a bad memory. Love is not resentful - forgiveness offered and forgiveness accepted is what should be practised.

In the business period it was decided to hold monthly luncheons in the Community Hall commencing on Wednesday,

Allan Swanston is victorious in Cuba

by Barbara Funk
Allan Swanston has returned home from the Cuban Nationals with two golds, three silvers, one bronze, and a fourth place from several swimming races. Allan was in Cuba as a result of an invitation from the Cuban government. The Canadian swimmers competed under adverse conditions. Allan reports that the water was much warmer than our swimmers are used to and not too clean.

After a few days at home (and more training) Allan will be going to the Canadian Nationals in Montreal and then to the World Student Games in Romania. Congratulations, Allan and good luck at your next meet.

Mrs. Ariel Barkley's piano students entertained family and friends last Wednesday night at the Rockwood Centennial School's Music Room. The students playing were Vanessa Weldeman, Scott Verhagen, Lisa Verhagen, Jody Wilson, Susan Bonnell, Ana Maria Bell, Brad Stevens, Aaron Stevens, Charles Bunce, and Matthew Tutzi. Mrs. Barkley was pleased also to introduce Walter Delahunt who played for the students. Mr. Delahunt has toured with the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra and in 1977 was invited to play for the King and Queen of Belgium. He has toured Europe four times since that time.

Besides developing his career as a soloist and chamber musician, Mr. Delahunt teaches piano at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto and gives master classes in Montreal in the summer. In 1981-82 he will teach at the Banff School of Fine Arts.

The Home and School reports a profit of over $385 at their garage and bake sale. The proceeds will be going to the creative playground fund.

The results for the Pioneer Day contests were as follows: for the Horseshoe tournament the Lou Hills Trophies were awarded to Bill DeVries first, Walker McLaren second, and Eno Seim for third. Mr. Seim was the defending champion. Frisbee throwing winners were: in the 7-12 yr. group, John Donnoley, and Waylon Wood; 13-17 yr. group, Joe Catteau, and Ed Meierling; 18 and over group, John Shults, Eric Fryters, and Brian Bilton.

The floats to receive awards were: 1st went to the Leos for their depiction of a pioneer school, second went to the Sunshine Club, third went to the Rockwood Centennial School Band's float, fourth went to the Lions for their Snoopy, and fifth went to the Junior Farmers.

The log sawing contest was won by Butch Given and Ken Death with a time of 11 seconds.

Soap-box derby winners were Rob Bueller, Jim McLean, Waylon Wood, Chris Vickery, Enzo Civero, Scott Sargent, Aaron Stevens, David Ware, Robert Murison, Tom Farr, Ken Martalle, and Sandy McDougal.

To the rest of the winners of the many contests, congratulations.

"One-two-pucker"—Pioneer Day contestants got to spit their heart's content at the watermelon seed spitting contest Saturday. Richard Ford limbers his lips for mileage.

A duet at the piano recital by students of Mrs. Ariel Barkley at Rockwood Centennial School was enjoyed by all. Mom Liz and son Brad Stevens performed. In the background are Scott Verhagen and Mrs. Barkley.

Churchill

Pot luck supper for CCCW meet

by J. Turner

In spite of threatening skies, the Churchill Sunday School picnic proceeded to Kelso as planned, and everyone had a marvellous time. After a diet-destroying picnic lunch, the activity-organizers, Shirley Swackhamer, Brenda Hillier, Margaret and Patricia Donnell, and Jan Soutiere gathered the children together for the races. Before long all the adults had been pried out of their lawn chairs, and were participating in the sort of crazy relays that kids excel in, and adults finish looking extremely silly. Lots of laughs and (hopefully) some good pictures.

Mrs. Wm. Thompson hosted the June meeting of the CCCW, which took the form of a pot luck supper. President Mrs. Edith Storey was in charge of the meeting, and also led in devotions.

Sympathy is extended to John Duenk and his mother in the death a week ago of a brother-in-law Klaas Druif, of Rockwood. We are sorry as

Picnic great success

by Doris Flies
Shirley Fletcher, a grade 8 student at Erin District High School, received a plaque for her third place standing in Jr. Biology, at the Science Fair. Well done, Shirley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher were recent guests at the wedding of George's niece Barbaranne Hutchinson and Andre McNutt, at Trinity United Church, Ingersoll.

Next Sunday, June 28, will be the 93rd anniversary service of Knox Presbyterian Church. Rev. George Lewis will be the guest speaker. The service begins at 11 a.m.

There was a wonderful turnout at Knox Presbyterian Church picnic on Sunday. The weather co-operated and turned out a pleasant day, which began with a barbecue of hot dogs and hamburgers, and desserts, at the home of Ward and Flora Bruce. Rev. Noble Dean conducted the outdoor service, with Bonnie Schotch playing the accordion for the hymns. Races and sports were enjoyed. Children and adults had a good time, and were rewarded with ice cream.

ONTARIO

Help is available to pay your OHIP premiums.

Ontario residents with low incomes are entitled to assistance in paying OHIP premiums. More importantly, the amount has been changed in the most recent Ontario Budget.

If your income as a single person is less than $8,200 or your total income as a family of four, for example, is below $14,000, you may be eligible for assistance to pay all or part of your premiums.

As always, pensioners or those receiving social assistance continue to receive OHIP coverage without charge.

The best way to check your eligibility is to contact your local OHIP office. It's listed in the Blue Pages of your telephone directory under Government Services.

Please ask because you may very well qualify for OHIP assistance today, even though you might not have in the past.
