Rockwood

Family reunion for 80 Death descendants

by Barbara Funk
The home of Ray and Betty Death was bustling recently when 80 descendants of Horace and Amanda Death gathered for a reunion. Family members came from North Bay, Lachine, Quebec, Belleville, West Hill, Whitby, Toronto, Kitchener, Mississauga, Holstein, Elora, Weston, Guelph, and Downsview.

Brian and Barbara Death, Rockwood, arranged games and contests with prizes awarded to the victors. A special treat, to celebrate 150 years of residency in Canada, followed the picnic supper when a cake made and decorated by Mrs. Agnes Evans of Erin was served.

Ray and Betty Death had other special visitors this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morris and Kathy Kilkeel, Northern Ireland spent an enjoyable day visiting with old friends. The Morris family are former residents of Rockwood and remarked on the many changes in the village since they returned to Northern Ireland 11 years ago.

ies of natural obstacles. This is an excellent spectator event and there is no charge for spectators. The trials are to begin at 11 a.m. Anyone walking through the Rockwood Conservation Area lately will not have been able to miss the construction underway. The authority hopes the new camping facilities will be finished by the fall, and available to campers next year. The campsites will be fully serviced, and a new utility buildings will be available.

After the building is finished the area will be landscaped with a windbreak and rail-fence erected. New trees and grass will be planted, and by camping season next year all will be in readiness.

A date to remember; on Saturday September 12 between 1 and 6 p.m. the Rockwood Academy will be open to the public. Admission price will be $3 with seniors and students paying $2.50. The academy, built in 1853 and used as a residential school, has been restored and is now being used as a private home by Joseph Drenters. A pioneer fair will be held on the grounds with herbs, produce, and dried flowers for sale.

tickets may call Barbara Smiley at 855-4566. Tickets are limited. The proceeds of the afternoon will be going to the Restoration Fund of St. John's Church, Rockwood. St. John's (nearly 100 years old itself) will also be open for viewing that afternoon.

Churchill

by J. Turner
The congregation of Churchill Community Church have now returned after two weeks' church holiday to regular Sunday service at the summer hour of 10:30 a.m. The congregation of Acton Baptist Church joined Churchill for worship last Sunday, with Rev. Emrys Jenkins in the pulpit. On August 30, Rev. Jenkins will preach at Acton Baptist Church and Churchill Congregation will be their guests.

The Social Committee of Churchill Community Church are hosting a corn and wiener roast on the church grounds this Saturday evening August 22, at 7 p.m. All friends and neighbors are welcome to join us around the bonfire for an evening of fun. A chicken barbecue is planned for Saturday, September 12, so keep that date open.

Rockwood youngsters Dean Beattie, Kara Fry and Mark Hall learn the many uses of egg cartons from Vacation Bible School teacher Jov McKee.

Family transferred to BC

Mrs. G. MacDougall
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Levy and son David have moved to Kelowna B.C. Mr. Levy has been transferred by the Canadian Tire Guelph store to a new one out there. Best wishes for a successful and happy future in their new surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tolton have moved to Kortright Park, Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings; Mrs. W. Wilson; Mrs. W. McLean and Mrs. W. Gilbertson enjoyed a lovely day at Cullen Gardens and Miniature Village at Whitby. They were part of a busload that left from Guelph.

The baseball team lost their second round of ORSA to Shedden. They lost the first game with a 4-3 score, came back to home base and won the second game 5-4 and then were downed again at Shedden with a 4-1 score. However there are still the league playoffs to come.

Mrs. J. Gilbertson and Mr. Jim Henry enjoyed a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Douglas in Oakville. Get well wishes are extended to Terry Cole who is a patient in Cambridge Hospital. The family of Bill MacDonald held his 65th birthday party in a waiting room at Toronto

General Hospital where his wife Alma was a patient so she could be included in this special occasion. Alma has since been released from Toronto General but sorry to report she is now resting in Guelph General. Hope her stay is short and sweet so she can return to her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings were guests at the Silver Wedding anniversary party held in honor of their daughter, Ena and son-in-law Jim Gibson of Acton. The family hosted the special festivities at St. Alban's Parish Hall on Saturday. Congratulations.

Had visitors from out of town. Tell Rockwood all about it. Call Barb Funk at 856-4801 or drop off a note at R&M Shoppette.
