

A piece of cake... Acton Home Hardware's grass-hopper ball club is out to prove you can have your cake and eat it too—especially with Bonnie Mitchell on your side. Mrs. Mitchell baked this cake for Hardware's Jonathon Coe, Jennifer Johnston, Scott Rickerby, Trevor Brent, Mike McRae, Jill Murray, Morgan Vaughan, Jennifer Brent, Jason Johnston, Brett Newman and coaches Bob Johnston and Russ Murray.

Hammond sews up ball season

Boucher and Jeff Jeffery both made some solid plays for Hammond's Ryan Brain scored five runs for the winners including a pair of homers. Kyle Thomson blasted a homer and crossed the plate another two times. Kimberley Rhynold, Allen Widish and Michael Vlestra scored twice. Bradley Widish and Matthew Brain scored one run each.

Emily's used their subs to sink Larry's House of Buys 18-16.

A pair of substitutes scored six of Emily's runs. Darlene Berezuk led the scoring with a troika of runs, Michael Vlestra, Bradley Widish and Chad Rowsell added a run each.

Larry's also showed solid hitting from David DeForest, and Sheldon Stuckless with three runs each. Danny Nellis, Colleen O'Leary Brett Wilson and Jason Larrabee scored twice each. Andrew Kellough and Nathan Larrabee each poked singles.

Actors may tell each other to 'break a leg', but for Melissa Fabian a broken arm proved to be luckier.

Tyler Tedbit's Fabian just got back after breaking an arm in three places. The injury didn't seem to affect her batting as she poked a two RBI double to clinch a close 5-3 win over Limehouse in the girls atom championship.

In the first game of the best of three final Tedbits beat Limehouse 19-10. Paula DeMontmorency scored twice, Michelle Perry, Angel Dunn, Kelly Koeller and Fabian scored one run each.

Double Trouble Curling Club might think twice next time they want a rematch with Double Trouble.

Recently the Al and Al Cheesebo'Brien Meats Double Trouble Club tied Curling Club 19-19. The Curling Club side thought they won the match so they had the game replayed.

They would have been better with the tie. Double Trouble hammered them 28-7.

Shelley Young and Doris Toebes scored four runs apiece. Jo-Ann Miller scored twice including a homer, Janet McCutcheon, Ann Irwin, Brenda McGilloway and Kathy Newman all scored three times each.
