

Robert Little's new French Immersion teacher Peggy Corner was busy preparing her classroom last week. She had some help from Jennifer and Julie Botzley.

Carol MacPherson faces her first classroom full of children today. The new teacher at St. Joseph's admitted to nervousness, but looked forward to the big day. She could be found last week setting up her classroom.

Starting back to school for M.Z. Bennett grade 5 teacher John Murphy meant moving all his belongings to another classroom.

Pipe band in top ten

Guelph Pipe Band and Acton resident Scott Malcolm returned home from Scotland recently with respectable placings under their belt after a three week stint of competitions. The Ontario Band placed third in Montrose, and ninth in the Worlds in Aberdeen, to give them a spot in the top ten bands. They were chosen as the guest band and piped 136 other bands onto the fields in Aberdeen.

Region Day Care open house

An open house will be held in Acton next week by the Region dealing with the future of Day Care services in Halton. Councillor Ann Mulvale announced a series of open houses being held across Halton and the first one is at the Acton Social Services and Information Centre, next Wednesday, September 16, at 7 p.m. Residents are encouraged to attend and offer comments on regional Day Care services. At present the region doesn't operate a day care centre here.

Burned out transformer

A burned out hydro transformer in Erin township Monday night disturbed firefighters' long weekend. Deputy fire chief Bob Hyde said area homes were without power for a while.

$1,200 house burglary

A Minolta camera, some homemade wine, a jewelry box and assorted other items were reported missing after a break-in at a Churchill Road south home over the weekend. Police say the door of the home was forced and items totalling an estimated $1,200 in value were stolen. Halton Regional Police are investigating. Got a Leathertown tale to tell. Tell all of Acton by calling On the Leavell at 853-2010 or 853-3224.
