Rockwood

Mosquito team first

by Barbara Funk
Hallowe'en is just four weeks away. Have you made your costume yet? The Lion's Hallowe'en Dress-up Dance promises to be an entertaining evening. It will be held at Rockmosa Centre on October 31 at 9 p.m. Tickets can be obtained from any Lion or call Mrs. Jenny Mitton at 856-9095. Music will be by Rob Gray.

The Rockwood Horticulture Club will be meeting on Wednesday October 14, at 8 p.m. at the Town Hall. The topic for the evening will be the pros and cons of greenhouses and cold frames. Those of you who like to start their gardens early will be able to share their experiences and maybe learn a few new tricks to beat those late frosts.

We have another Rockwood team at the top of the league. The Rockwood Mosquito Soccer team finished first in their division. They belong to the Erin-Hillsburgh league. The players are: David Brown, Jeff Brown, William Hill, Ian Robson, Greg Hannam, Charles Bunce, Robert Carney, Cathy Ritchie, Kevin Ritchie, Todd Lazenby, Kenny Phillips, Ricky Phillips, Mike Haworth, Bruce English, Dwayne Death and Jennifer MacDonald. Their coaches are Chris Haworth and Brian Death.

Come and help the Rockwood and District Leo's celebrate their fourth anniversary. They are having a dinner and dance on Friday, October 9 at Rockmosa Centre beginning at 6 p.m. Rob Gray is providing the music. Tickets are $15 a couple and can be obtained from any Leo or call Anita Brace at 856-4241.

Fall fashions will be on parade at Rockwood Centennial School on Thursday October 15 beginning at 8 p.m. St. John's Church along with Heather Hill Fashions will be presenting a complete line of new fall and winter wear. General admission is $3 and $2 for seniors and students. Tickets can be obtained from Grace Britney at 856-9075, Rachel Hockey at 856-4614 or Joan Miles at 856-9065. The ladies of the church will be serving refreshments during intermission. There will also be door prizes. The proceeds of the evening will be going to the St. John's Church restoration fund.

Leo's basketball begins on Saturday, October 9 at 1 p.m. at Rockwood Centennial School. The Elmira Rod and Gun Club was the scene of a Unity Feast celebrated by the Baha'is of the Saugeen area. Over 200 guests enjoyed a full afternoon of games with a buffet supper following. The evening was spent listening to concert music and dancing. Michael Dragoman, a Rockwood Baha'i was one of the many musicians.

Fire Chief Carl Meadows reports one call this week. The firefighters responded to a call on lot 27 of the third line. The department extinguished a fire in a bus that had been converted to a camper.

Rachel McCormick gets her pony ride for the Guelph Pony Club ride Saturday.

Eden Mills Surprise birthday visit

by Mrs. G. MacDougall
Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson in their bereavement of Ralph's father, Alfred Thompson of Hillsburgh.

Cecil Mills has been a weekend guest with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings and he accompanied them to a silver wedding anniversary party for their daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Kennedy. This happy surprise party was held at the Lions Club Hall in Campbellville. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koehn, Waterloo, were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. G. MacDougall.

Playoff ball games for the David D. Gray Trophy between Rockwood and Eden Mills teams resulted in a victory for Eden when they won two games with scores 3-2 and 5-3. Robbie Campbell was winning pitcher for both games. Congratulations to the home team.

The village was saddened by the sudden passing of Art Ball this week. Villagers have often seen this gentleman in his quiet unassuming manner helping his daughter and son-in-law, Sharyn and Dave, around the store and antique shop. His presence will be missed and sincere condolences are offered to his wife Joan, daughter Brenda, Sharyn, Dave and Mark Banks and other members of the family. Mrs. Ted Barden was pleasantly surprised when son Jim flew in from Edmonton to help celebrate her birthday. Jim, brother Gary and their friends entertained Evelyn and Ted at a lovely dinner at St. Jacobs.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Marshall entertained friends after the christening of their new daughter, Christina Irene on Sunday.

A baptismal font was dedicated in memory of Mrs. Elsa Bruce at the United Church at Sunday's service. The Bruce family who are former residents were in attendance.

The September meeting of the Presbyterian Women was held at the home of Mrs. Beryl Lockett with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. E. Barden opened the meeting with a poem, "A Little Bit of Everything."

Reports were given and communications read. Plans were finalized for catering to a dinner for a busload of Seniors from Rochester, N.Y. on Thursday, September 24.

Mrs. Barden reported on the executive meeting of the WMS Presbyterian and on November 9, the fall rally will be held at Fergus. The annual meeting is scheduled for February 8, 1982 in Knox Church, Guelph. The WMS Retreat to Crief Hills is on October 14.

Pennies for the Fellowship of the Least Coin were dedicated by Mrs. W. Lasby. The roll call was answered with an exchange of garden produce.

The scripture lesson was read from Psalm 67 by Mrs. R. Blacklock. Some pleasant old memories were recalled when Bob Wright showed some of his Grandma Wright's moving pictures. The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer.

Tara McCormick, RR 3, Rockwood, participated in the Guelph Pony Club ride for the Central Ontario Disabled Riders Program Saturday at Halton Presbytery grounds in Nassagaweya.

Blame headlights for missing curve

Guelph OPP estimate $3,000 to a car driven by Rhonda L. Hassert, 16, of Guelph who was involved in a single car accident September 20 at 12.10 a.m.

Police say the Hassert vehicle was travelling northbound on Wellington County Road 44, one mile south of Highway 7 in Eramosa Township when the driver was blinded by the headlights of an oncoming car. Hassert missed the curve and went into the ditch, she told police.

Hit and run

Guelph OPP are investigating a hit and run accident in Rockmosa parking lot on Sunday. Police say a car owned by Robert Moore of Guelph was struck while parked in the lot. Damage is estimated at $200.
