Ospringle Choir formed

by Doris Fines

Knox Presbyterian Church has received a bright and heart-warming addition to its services. Bonnie Schotach has organized a choir, which she leads, as well as being the organist. There are 17 members consisting of men, women and young folk. A special donation was taken at church last Sunday morning for the "Save the Boat People."

On Friday evening Oct. 9, Judy Stewart, daughter of Vernon and Laura Stewart of Ospringle, and Kenneth McKenzie, son of Don and Barbara McKenzie of RR 4 Rockwood, were married in Milmosa United Church. Rev. Slater officiated at the ceremony.

Kathy Sommerville of Orton was the bridesmaid, and best man was Brian Jamond of RR 1, Erin. Chris Stewart, brother of the bride, and Dwayne McKenzie, brother of the groom, were ushers. The reception was held at the Erin Legion Hall. Guests were present from Ripley, Guelph, Erin, Hamilton and Caledon. Our congratulations and best wishes are extended to the young couple.

Our best wishes go out also to Linda McKenzie, daughter of Norman and Hilda McKenzie of Ospringle, and Richard Cordick, son of Margaret Cordick and the late Melvin Cordick of Durham, who were married on Saturday, October 10 in Guelph.

Bryan Hayter, editor of the Erin Advocate, came to Ospringle Public school on Friday, to talk about newspaper work to grade 7 students, to help them get started on putting a year book together.

Last Tuesday was Open House at the school. The parents were invited to see all the classrooms, which was followed by an informal get-together in the gym with cookies and coffee.

The Gideons visited the school last week and presented grade 5 students with New Testaments.

A bridal shower was held in the church basement for Judy Stewart. It was well attended. Kathy Sommerville and Karen McKinnon helped Judy with her gifts, assisted by her sister Flora and niece Crystal Clark. Gladys Lang and ladies of the church helped with refreshments.

Congratulations to Stan and Agnes Fuller on the arrival of their second grandson. James Robert Hanna was born September 30, weighing 9 pounds 5 ounces. He will be living with his parents Robert and Marlene Hanna at Kitchener, and his sister Karen.

Dan Porter and Glen Lister of the Town of Oakville repair the traffic light at the Mill-Man corner that was damaged during a recent car crash.

Plan anniversary

Next Sunday, October 18, is Ebenezer's 158th anniversary. The special speaker at the 11 o'clock service will be Rev. Robert Hyde, of Barrie Hill.

The annual beef dinner will be held on Oct. 21, commencing at 4:45 p.m.

The ladies are holding a bazaar at Milton Mall, on October 31.

Mr. Finley's topic was "Threefold Thanks." The forebears of the American people were strong and pioneering. Some Indians were friendly. When the people got their log cabins built, they said, "Let's have a day of thanksgiving. People are facing hardships today."

Dr. McClure was asked why he was an optimist. He said optimism is hormonal. He shows confidence in accepting more work.

God is other people. God is here among you. St. Paul had a spectacular journey. Under its influence, all his arrogance melted away. He became a man in Christ. He suffered many hard knocks.

There is a Greek legend, about when people come to die. They come to a river, with a boat to carry them across. A lady, who arrived there, was told that if she drank of the water, she would forget everything, her mistakes, joys, loves, hates. She decided to remember.

God created you for himself. We are in God's hands. He decides our ultimate destiny. Only one leper of the ten, who were cleansed, came back to give thanks.

Sheldon Trousdale has taken up residence in Oxford Lodge and Mrs. Trousdale is in Hyde Park Nursing Home.

Congratulations to John and Mrs. de Blauw on the birth of a daughter.

Ivan Harris is a patient in Milton Hospital.

Flora Moffat, from British Columbia, is spending the winter with her brother and sister-in-law, Duncan and Irene.

Drop-ins held for seniors and teens

The Acton Y is reaching out to all age groups in town.

In addition to the many evening courses the local service group offers, they are also starting up an Adult and Senior Citizens' Drop-in as well as reviving the Mug for local teenagers, both commencing this Friday.

The Senior Citizens' Drop-in was very popular just a few years ago, with the folks dropping into the town hall on Willow St.

Eileen Dix, program director at the Y explained, "I talked with some seniors and they felt this (a drop-in) was really necessary in Acton."

Mrs. Dix will be supervising the drop-in and will be open Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The drop-in will be very casual, the director explained, with cards, checkers, chess and handicrafts offered. The upstairs meeting room will be offered to small numbers, and days when there is a large turnout the seniors will gather downstairs in The Mug.

Armchairs and couches are needed for the October 16 opening.

And that same day the Mug for teenagers is re-opening Friday after a lengthy absence. Doors open at 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. New additions will be a juke box and two pin ball machines. Refreshments will be available at a reasonable cost. The Mug will also be open Tuesdays 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.
