Greenock WI Disabled van at meeting

The October meeting of Greenock Woman's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. E. Winter on October 13 with 21 members present.

The meeting started with the program (Year of the Disabled) in charge of the executive, Mrs. W. Aitken opened the meeting with a poem, Mrs. G. Leslie read The Beatitudes of the Disabled. Mrs. J. McCulloch had the Meditations.

The president introduced the guest speaker Miss J. Lemieux, who is the bus driver for the large bus for the disabled belonging to Denny Bus Lines and operated in Guelph city. Miss Lemieux told all about the bus which has seats for 20 people and 12 wheelchairs. The ladies then went out to the bus which she had so kindly brought and she demonstrated the wheelchair ramp lift and showed the unique things in the bus. There was a question period which was all enjoyed. Mrs. A. Gates thanked Miss Lemieux for coming.

The roll call was Round the Room Current Events and many members has news involving the disabled.

Mrs. W. Aitken and Mrs. G. Pridmore attended the workshop For All Seasons and would like anyone interested whether a member or not to attend their meeting planned for Wednesday November 4 at Mrs. W. Aitken's home. There was a lot of business discussed. Tea, coffee and fancy cookies, tarts and squares were served.

MacMillan speaker

Hugh MacMillan, RR2 Rockwood, Archives Liaison Officer with the Ontario Archives will be the guest speaker at the Halton Region Museum next Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Main Hall. Admission is free and refreshments will be served.

In his talk MacMillan describes something of the excitement of his research, together with the frustrations and disappointments of false trails and missed opportunities. His presentation includes a display of a wide assortment of written and pictorial documents acquired during his searches.

Snow storm catches ladies

Nobody minded, however, as the snowflakes were of our own creation. With each member participating, Langercraft of Georgetown demonstrated the art of making colorful snowflakes to be used as Christmas tree decorations. These delightful ornaments were fun and easy to make and, hopefully will be a big seller at our Christmas Bazaar, November 28.

A guest speaker from St. Martin's Manor in Hamilton will be on the agenda for our November 10 general meeting. In order to share with us the opportunity of hearing about the programs and facilities available to unwed mothers, an invitation is being extended to the members of the CWL in Georgetown, Milton and Rockwood.

Our annual fall rummage sale takes place Friday, October 23 from 10 a.m. to 7.30 p.m. in St. Joseph's parish hall. Winter clothing and small portable items will be available for sale. The meeting closed with a prayer.

Group readies for sale and exhibition

The members of the Acton Arts and Crafts group held their monthly meeting at the Isabel Watson room of the Acton Public Library recently.

Among the various activities in preparation for the group's 12th annual exhibition and sale on October 31 was the setting up of a display in the showcase in the Library. The exhibition is held in St. Alban's Parish Hall from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

During the summer the members enjoyed a trip to the Village Square boutiques in Burlington and some members also joined the Georgetown Arts and Crafts on a bus trip to Kleinburg and the McMichael Gallery.
