Churchill

Ghosts, devil, sailor are among others at party

by J. Turner
The annual Halloween party at Churchill last Saturday evening saw many a witch or black cat, but lots of gypsies and clowns, farmers and cowboys.

There were two sleepytime girls with teddy bears, a tall ghost with eerie green eyes, a petite fairy queen, two mysterious scarecrows bristling with straw, a couple of hot dogs, a lively mother monkey with infant monk, a busy little mouse, an even smaller red devil, and a wee sailor with a black eye and bottle of milk? There were various shapes and sizes of hobos, a puppy, a curly-headed lion, and a couple of classy-looking ladies in 1950's garb. Judges Mrs. J. Soutiere and Bill and Charlie Thompson had a hard time allotting costume prizes. Then relays and games were played. The old-fashioned ones like apple-on-a-string, and apple-bobbing seemed the most fun of all. All the mothers had brought lunch, and at the conclusion of the games, the ladies of the CCCW set out plates of sandwiches and cookies and a social time was enjoyed.

The fall Congregational meeting of Churchill Community Church was held October 22 at the church, with Rev. E. M. Jenkins chairing the meeting. A committee was set up under the convener'ship of Howard Donnell to look after details of the tape program. The mission allotments came under discussion. The projects we are supporting this year are Muriel Stephenson's mission in India, Jalros Jiri's schools for the disabled in Zimbabwe, and the Carey Memorial Chapel in Hackleton, North Hamps., England. Envelopes will be available the next two Sundays for givings. Matters under consideration by the Board of Managers are the insulation of the church ceiling, painting the exterior, and, or more immediate concern, putting up the storm windows. The congregation is planning a pot luck dinner

Sunday, November 22, after morning service.
