

Hugs and misses for Bears

Acton Mixed
The Flyers stopped the Huggy Bears dead in their tracks by taking all four and Top Notch let the Macaroons have 1 out of 4. The Slow Pokes slowed up a bit as they split 4 with the King Pins. Top single shooter for the ladies went to Pat Boysen 232 and Agnes McGinnis blasted a 629 ladies high triple. For the guys it was John Higgins bogging top single 270 and Fred Blain tripled out at 639. Other top singles were rolled by Fred Blain 232, Stella Iredale 223, Kathy Jansen 222, Agnes McGinnis 214. Handing in high triples were Kathy Jansen 606, Pat Boysen 606, John Higgins 590, Peg Mitchell 564, Judy Shannon 562. Standings are Slow Pokes 14, Top Notch & Flyers 12, Huggy Bears 11, King Pins 11, Macaroons 9.

Mr. and Mrs.
The Bandits managed to stick up the 1/2 Pints for 2 of 3 points and the AC-DC did the same to the Sure Shots who weren't too sure tonight of where the strike zone was. The No Names are starting to make their move as the hammered the Head Pins for all 4. Cathie Ahearn topped all other ladies as she captured both high single 294 and triple 609. Gerry Disano rolled best single of the guys with a 250 and Ken Arnold tripled out at 631. Other good

Bowl tourney

'Bowling for Dollars' is coming to Acton in January. Sunday, January 31, 1982 Acton Bowling Lanes is hosting a Men's Majors tournament, with 18 teams competing for $1,500 in prize money. The first place team in the Ontario Five Pin Bowlers sanctioned event will win $600 prize money. Second place is good for $300 cash, third spot picks up $210, fourth place team grabs $150 while the fifth and sixth place squads get their $120 entry fee returned. The tournament will run in three shifts over six lanes with a total pinfall deciding the semi-finalists, 12 in all. The six top semi-finalists advance to the money round or finals. (Pinfall doesn't carry over from round to round). Proceeds from the event go to the Acton Youth Bowling Program. Any teams interested in competing in the tourney should contact Rob Inscow during the day at 877-5266 or (416) 451-9032 or contact Bob Heatley at the Acton Lanes.

Small wonders

There's no place like home, especially for Acton judo enthusiasts. Saturday the Acton YMCA held its first annual judo tournament, with clubs from Georgetown, Belfountain and Guelph competing against five locals. Despite a small contingent of five, Acton still captured four medals. Acton's Brad Harkins was second best in the boys 7-9 division and Mark Vanderknacker was fourth. David Ruse was runner-up in the boys 10-12 lightweight division. Chris Johansen was second in boys 10-13 heavyweight class.
