

Goals, ghouls haunt sabres

It was Hallowe'en at the Community Centre last Friday night. Some spectators wore masks (left). Acton and Barrie players seem to have come as a pair of wrestling bears. Sabres had a little trouble staying on their skates, but still dropped Barrie 9-6.

One whale of a scorer

hockey

Eddie Wilson is one Whale of a hockey player. The Legion Bantam scored eight goals to lead his Whalers to a 14-4 thumping of Jets. Gary Coverdale slammed home three markers, Scott Jeffery, Ron Atkinson and Steve Parker each scored singles.

Wayne Chappel had a pair, Steve Harkins and Chris Slansbury were accurate with singles for Jets.

In other bantam play Rockies stoned Cougars in a 11-1 humiliation.

Jack Ninabar was good for four goals, Terry Danagher had a pair, Rick Smith, Dave Vander-eyken, Chris Stewart, Ray Archer and Todd Andrews scored one goal each.

London edged Oshawa 3-2 in Atom play. Wayne Sterritt, Andy Smith and Gerry Huriburt scored for the winners. John White and Dale Stewart put in goals for Oshawa.

Oshawa came away with one point after they tied St. Kitts 1-1. Scott Cribb scored for Oshawa, Danny Robinson for St. Kitts.

Mike Peters fired a pair of goals as Baltimore doubled Tidewater 4-2 in peewee play. Derek Bottomley and Scott Nellis each sild in singles.

Tim Oakley and Shawn McFadden pocketed singles for Tidewater.

Guelph drew a blank when they came up against Weston in Novice play. Matt Johnstone, Chris Caswell and Derek Johnston tickled the twine twice to lead Weston to a 7-0 win. Michael Pope added a single.

A hat-trick by Chris McErgle helped Burlington squeak past Brampton. Errol Cowan finished out the scoring for Burlington. Denis Hosoi scored three times for Brampton, Chris Nolan scored once.

Craig Stuckey and Robbie Harden provided all the scoring punch Oakville needed to defeat Dixie 6-2.

Both novices struck for three goals each, Bill Densbury and Matthew Robertson scored for Dixie. Cleveland and Rochester kept things even through three periods of peewee hockey and came out with a 4-4 draw.

David Paul scored a pair of goals, Wayne McEneaney and Wayne Paul scored one each. Emmanuel Kriticos, Jeff Jackson, Sean Fitzgerald and Dennis Swinamer shared the scoring for Cleveland.

Toronto didn't play like it's name sake as it dropped Peewee 6-1 in midweek action.

Phil Shea and Bob Brouillard each tallied twice, Chris Lobsinger and Troy Naught had singles.

Pressurized

Acton Minor bantam reps must excel under pressure. Last week the rep club won a pair of games, tied one and lost one. Fortunately the tie and loss were only in exhibition bouts.

Steve Wagner scored twice as reps beat Hespeler 4-2. Randy McIntyre and Jason Rogers added the other goals.

Wagner had a hat-trick, Rogers and Brad Demone had a pair and McIntyre a single as reps dropped Guelph 8-5.

Acton reps didn't fare as well in the games that didn't count. Wagner, McIntyre, Steve Martin and Warren Blain scored in reps 5-4 loss to Chinguacousy. David Johnston was good for one in the 1-1 tie against Erin.

Bad luck

Acton's juvenile Hub League team didn't have as much luck, as they dropped both league games. Acton dropped a 6-2 game against Woodstock and a 5-4 game to Woolwich.

Sean VanKesteren scored both goals for Acton in the 6-2 loss. He also had a pair of tallies against Woolwich, Gary Lumbers and Paul David rounded out the score.

Shy guys

Ed's In and Out Midgets came up shy in a 4-2 game against Woodstock. Wayne McMillan scored both Acton markers.

By George

Acton minor peewees had problems when they faced cross-town rival Georgetown, and ended up losing a 4-3 decision.

Home free

Stratford must not believe in the saying 'there's no place like home.'

The minor atom Hub League hockey team seemed to enjoy their visit to Acton, when they blanked our boys 10-0.

Acton did a little better when they paced Hespeler to a 5-5 tie.

ATW is tops

A.T.W. kept on top of the Industrial Hockey League heap with a sound 8-2 win over Family Cleaners.

Chris Tennant scored a hat-trick, Mike Petkoff a pair, Wayne DeForest, Bart Jacobs and Steve Atkinson had singles.

Russ Van Fleet and Brent Irwin scored for Cleaners.

Lakeview ran into trouble when it met up with Heller's, and ended up losing a 5-4 game. Dave Paul scored twice for the winners, Scott Malcolm, Jim Cooney and Bill Syverensky added one goal each.

Bill Manes had a troika, Glen McKenzie a single for Lakeview.

Trouble came in threes for Acton Travel. Henry Toebes and Dave Morris each tallied three times to lead Nielsen's to an 8-5 win over Travel.

Gary Moore had a pair in the winning cause. Jeff Townsley rifled a pair, John Sykes, Gary Pickles and Sid Barnes all had one goal each.
