Karen Paton on the flute.

Doug Kellough and Bruce Kidd were the bearers of the boar's head.

Friar Chuck, as he is affectionately called among his Trinity United Church congregation gave the blessing at the Boar's Head dinner Sunday evening. He is better known as Rev. Chuck Beaton.

Lisa Doberthien did a great job as the town crier.

Nancy Patterson, Andrea Arbie and Andreas Thiel were instrumental in the Boar's Head dinner.

Chris Rosenquist once again showed his talents at the Boar's Head dinner.

Chainsaw disappears
Sometime between October 31 and December 8, someone entered the barn at the rear of the Norm McKenzie property, RR3 Acton, and stole a 20 inch Homelite Chain Saw valued at $335 Guelph OPP say. There are no suspects.
