Donna Thomson gets coveted Canada Cord

by Barbara Funk

Sixteen new guides were enrolled into the Rockwood Girl Guides Company on Thursday December 3. The new members are Kerl Death, Christine Duff, Leanne Ford, Kristina Ingleson, Sherry Lawlor, Theresa Rose, Kim Stevens, Elizabeth Szejner, Cheryl Thomson, Janet Verhagen, Lisa Verhagen, Heather Wingate, Sandra Jastin, Kristino Ritchie, Angela Whitman, and Diane Drexler.

The guide company has been working on badges since September. Some of the girls have worked for their baking badge, while others have been working on needlework badges. After finishing the required work for their badges, the girls brought their results to their meetings. Several of the girls made quilts.

Donna Thomson saw the end of five years hard work, when she was presented with a Canada Cord at the meeting. She began working towards the Canada Cord when she was a Guide and finished this year as a Pathfinder. Besides the cord, Donna also received a pin and plaque from the provincial government for a job well done. Donna is continuing her association with guiding by serving as a junior leader for the Rockwood Guide Company. Well done, Donna.

The winners of the Boy Scout Draw were: for the set of dishes, Kevin Murison, RR 1, Rockwood, for the crystal ware, Cherie Lehman, RR 2, Rockwood, and for the ceramic Christmas tree, Mrs. Jean Lawton, Division St. Rockwood.
