

Cooper-Allsop vows said in Baptist Church

Acton Baptist Church was the setting of the November 2 wedding of Tamra (Tammy) Delene Allsop and Douglas Stewart Cooper. The bride, of 666 George Rd. West, Victoria, British Columbia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Allsop, RR 2 Guelph. The groom of Victoria Military Base is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cooper, RR 2 Acton. He is a No. T.C. Sub Lieut. in the navy.

Pastors Das Sydney and Jean Stairs jointly officiated at the wedding, it being Rev. Stairs first ceremony in her own congregation. Jancie Haverly provided the organ music.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Tammy wore a long white gown. The bodice was lace with a high neck and long sleeves, and the skirt was heavy silk. A continental veil accented the ensemble. She carried a bouquet of red tea roses and white star flowers.

Laurie Early, RR 1 Campbellville, friend of the bride was maid of honor. She carried blue carnations with mixtures of palm and baby's breath. Bridesmaids were Julie Zions, RR 2 Acton, a friend, and sisters Lianne and Tracy Allsop RR 2 Guelph and the groom's sister Holly Cooper, RR 2 Acton. They carried a mixture of pink and white carnations and baby's breath. Baskets were carried by the junior bridesmaids made up of silk flowers.

The groom's brother was best man with ushers being brothers Mike Cooper, Paul Cooper, and friends Gord Bruce and Fred Allen.

The best man and the groom's uncle Bob Bradley proposed the toasts.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents

Mr. and Mrs. Gord Bruce, an aunt from Alexandria, Virginia, and friends from British Columbia and Kingston. Prior to her wedding Tammy was guest of honor at many special gatherings. A miscellaneous was given by Laurie Early, Julie Zions, Sandra Krish, and sister Lianne Allsop. Wilma Fuller hosted a community shower, and Tracey Allsop, Holly Cooper, Karen Bruce and Shirley Veldman gave a miscellaneous shower. A stag was also held for the groom by Jeff Cooper, Mike Cooper, Art Cooper and Eric Allsop.

The couple now reside at Apt. 307 - 948 Esquimalt Rd., Victoria, B.C.

Tammy Allsop and Doug Cooper were married in Acton Baptist Church November 2. They have made their home in Victoria, B.C.

Charlene Hubbell weds, in Trinity United Church

A lovely autumn wedding took place Saturday, October 3, when Virginia Charlene Hubbell and Robert Thomas Teasdale were married at Trinity United Church, Acton.

Charlene is the only daughter of Charles and Virginia Hubbell, Acton, and Robert is the son of John Teasdale and the late Helen Teasdale, Hastings.

Reverend Gerald Rennie performed the ceremony.

Prior to the wedding Mrs. Jan Hume, friend of the bride, sang "Follow Me". During the ceremony she sang "The Wedding Song".

The bride was given in marriage by her parents.

Matron of Honour was Margaret Hubbell, sister-in-law of the bride, and Brenda Jackson, friend of the bride. Best man was Ron Elmhirst, friend of the groom and ushers were Craig Richards, friend of the groom and Lorne McGee, friend of the groom.

The reception following the wedding was held at Acton Meadows Golf Course. Charles Hubbell Jr. was Master of Ceremonies. Before the meal Dr. George Fischer, friend of the groom, offered grace. During the reception, Hugh O'Rourke, friend of the bride's family, proposed a toast to the bride.

The wedding cake displayed on the head table was made by Mrs. Hilda Reeve, longtime friend of the bride's family and her daughter-in-law Wendy Reeve decorated the cake. The bride topped the cake with a cherished possession which was the top from her grandparents' wedding cake.

The bride and groom's friends and family later enjoyed a dance held at the golf course where Stephen Sharpe from Kitchener was the Disc Jockey. Guests at the wedding were present from Campbellford, Ottawa, Kempsville, Lombardy, British Columbia, Burlington, Toronto and Acton.

Following the honeymoon trip to Northern Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Teasdale made their home in Hastings, Ontario.

Charlene Hubbell and Robert Teasdale were married October 3. They are now living in Hastings Ontario.

Eden Mills Subdivision street lights turned on

The street lights have been turned on in the new subdivision and Lowrie Lane is now nicely illuminated to brighten the nights of the homeowners and shed a warm glow for the Christmas season.

Fond memories were rekindled when Shirley and Maisie Lasby hosted a dinner for their mother-in-law, Florence Lasby, a resident of Guelph Rest Home and some of her friends, Mable Frank, Bessie McGregor, Wilma, Katie and Sada Gilbertson. This happy gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lasby.

The December meeting of the Presbyterian Women was hosted by Mrs. Jim Henry, Guelph. Twelve members and two guests were present. The meeting opened with the president reading a poem "Unbar your heart." Reports were given and thank-you notes were read. A ten dollar donation is to go to the Community Club for use of the hall for the bazaar. Two guests Mrs.

Angie Ramsey and Mrs. Betty Bewley were welcomed by the president. Pennies were received and dedicated by Rev. Doehring. Scripture, readings and prayers with a Christmas theme were given by Mrs. Henry, and Mrs. Barden gave a reading "The Cobbler's Christmas List." The program was interspersed with music pre-recorded on tape by Marg Blacklock. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison. Christmas cards from the gaily wrapped post-office box were handed out by Joan Chamberlain and Maisie Lasby in her pretty red dress was Santa Claus for the exchange of gifts. Tasty refreshments were served by the hostess and Sada and Katie Gilbertson. Courtesies for a nice evening were extended by Mrs. J. Chamberlain. The Candlelight Christmas Eve service at the Presbyterian Church begins at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome to celebrate the real meaning of Christmas. The UCW held their Christmas meeting in the Sunday School room with a good attendance. Mrs. Mabel Parker opened the meeting with a short story about "Sharing."

In the business period, the minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Freda Thompson and the treasurer's report showing a good balance was read by Mrs. Jean James.

The nominating committee, Mrs. Betty Snow and Mrs. Wilma Fuller presented the following slate of officers for 1982. Past president, Mrs. Mabel Parker; president, Mrs. Ruth Millson; vice-pres., Mrs. Freda Thompson; secretary, Mrs. Betty Snow; treasurer, Mrs. Jean James; citizenship convener, Mrs. M. Parker; stewardship convener, Mrs. F. Thompson; flower and goodie convener, Mrs. L. Tomlinson.

May this festive, bright Christmas fill your hearts with song and mirth.
