

Bill Coats of the Acton Beautification Committee presented prizes to the first and second place winners in the best decorated house at Christmas contest, Saturday morning. Roy and Kathy Vandermeer, 244 McDonald Blvd., won an Actario ticket while the $25 second prize went to Joe and Darlene Brown, 90 Acton Blvd. Third prize winners, John and Deanna Sykes, 154 Tyler Ave., weren't on hand to receive their prize, a voucher from Family Cleaners. The four winners and Coats performed the ticket drawing duties at Actario.

Berry-Williams vows exchanged

Guests came from as far away as Scotland and Ottawa to witness the marriage vows of Cheryl Anne Williams and David James Berry on October 10.

Rev. John Robertson officiated at the ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church with Mrs. Oakes at the organ and Scott Malcolm as piper.

Cheryl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Iain Williams, 107 Elizabeth Dr. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Berry, 160 Elmwood Dr., Acton. Both are employed with Atomic Energy of Canada, the bride as a secretary, the groom as a co-op student with the University of Waterloo.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Cheryl wore a gown of silk sheer with French lace. A V neck flowed into a lace yoke with ruffled neck. Full sleeves with lace cuffs accentuated the gown. The overalls had an apron effect with deep lace ruffles falling into a long train. Her ensemble was complemented by a lace cap and a face veil. The cathedral length veil was bordered with matching lace.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Susan Burgen, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Linda Stewart, Orangeville, Donna Layton, and Sylvia Bell, both of Georgetown, Christine White, Cooksville and Sandra McNeil, Brantford. They wore autumn rose gowns.

Gary Berry, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were David Williams, brother of the bride, Allan Livingstone, cousin of the bride, Rick Van Fleet, Les Jones, and Gary Burgen, friends of the groom.

At a dinner and dance held at the Cutten Club, Guelph, the mother of the bride received her guests wearing a daphne rose gown. The mother of the groom wore a frothy rose gown.

Angus Livingstone, uncle of the bride, acted as master of ceremonies. Special guests were aunts and cousins from Scotland. Other guests attended from Ottawa, Niagara Falls, Windsor, Toronto, Grand Valley, Acton and Georgetown. Prior to their wedding, Cheryl and David were guests of honor at many special gatherings. A dinner and shower was held by friends at Northern Telecom, a miscellaneous shower was hosted by Susan Burgen, and a shower and a presentation were held by co-workers and friends at Atomic Energy of Canada.

Following a honeymoon to Quebec City, the couple made their home in Guelph.

False alarm

The only call this week was Monday to Robert Little School: a false alarm when the alarm system malfunctioned.

Actario winners

Greta Heller, 67 Lake Ave., was the winner of the monthly Actario trip draw made on Boxing Day. Mrs. Heller won a trip to Acapulco.

Eva Cooper and Paul Nielsen shared the ticket which was drawn for the weekly $350 prize.

Kay Dills was the winner of the super shopper prize, taking home vouchers from Nielsen's, Acton Photo and Camera, Ed's In 'N Out, Jolliffe Shoes, Jugo City, Family Cleaners and Acton Bowling Lanes.

Mac and Joyce Sprowl, 159 Churchill Rd. South, won merchant bonus vouchers from Acton IGA, Home Hardware and Acton Family Restaurant. Other guests attended from Acton, Niagara Falls, Windsor, Toronto, Grand Valley, Acton and

Rockwood

Wanted: snow for Jan. rally

by Barbara Funk
Rockwood-Eramosa firefighters responded to one call this past week. The call was to a chimney fire at the home of Hank Theaker, R.R. 5, Rockwood.

Rockwood's Great Escape '82 tickets are still available. This is a good chance on a $2,000 travel voucher besides providing the Rockwood-Eramosa Fire Department with firefighting extracting and rescue equipment. The department has had incidents in the past where this equipment would have made rescue much easier, which would have resulted in the victims receiving medical assistance much faster. The tickets can be obtained from any firefighter or Lion. The draw will be held New Year's Eve at Rockwood Hall.

The Lions club Snowmobile Rally will be on January 24 this year, hopefully. Further information can be obtained from Don Martin at 856-4746. It's a little early to pick up pledge sheets but I think if we all start thinking snow, snow now there should be enough white stuff to hold the rally this winter.

Last report from the Lions Dance Committee is that there are tickets for the New Year's Eve celebrations still available. Music will be provided by "Belfast." A hot buffet will be served after midnight. Noise-makers, hats etc. are all to be provided. Tickets are selling for $30, a couple, with the doors opening at 8 p.m. at the Rockwood Hall. May I wish you and yours a very Happy and Peaceful New Year.

82 students in school concert

by Doris Fines
The school pupils came out with an excellent performance at their Christmas concert recently, and there was a large crowd turned out to see it. The 82 voice school choir sang several numbers. They comprise students from grade 3 to 7. The primary choir, grades 1 to 3, also did very well. The students of grade 4 to 6 did an excellent performance in the play "Babes in Toyland," directed by Mrs. Arlene Hipkins, and future star performers could be visualized as one watched. The Star of Bethlehem pageant was enacted by grade 7, directed by Mrs. Vera Denny, and the closing speech was given by Kelly Brown. Mrs. Bonnie Scholch was pianist throughout the performance.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. David Woodward and family, on the death of Mrs. Woodward's brother Harry Fendley of the Fergus district.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Fraser spent the weekend in Toronto at the home of their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Graham Fraser. A going away party was given for Graham and Yvonne, who are being transferred to Edmonton the end of December, by the Le Blanc and Royle Broadcasting Company for whom he is an outdoor workman.

John Aitken of St. Louis, Missouri, visited with his parents Gordon and Anna Aitken, on his way to Ottawa in search of a house. John and Penny and family will be moving to Ottawa in mid January.

Worship at Knox Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, was in the form of a Christmas Carol Service. Carols, readings and scripture verses comprised the service, with the choir, singing Alleluia Christ is Born.
