Raise $3,000 with rally

by Barbara Funk
Even in spite of the weather, organizer Don Martin reports the Lions Rockwood "100" snowmobile rally was a success.

The hardy riders had over $3,000 pledged. Surprisingly, there were only a few minor frost-bite cases reported at the end of the run.

Robert Allerellie took top prize with only 30 Penalty points. Ken Winters, driving with his son Donald as passenger, took the prize for least penalty points (29) for family.

The oldest driver to complete the two runs was Mrs. Elizabeth Thomson. Cathy Hawkins, 12, took the prize for the most pledges for girls under 16, with Sue Hawkins, 15, taking second. For boys under 16, Kevin Ritchie, 12, took first and Donald Winters 11, took second place. Cathy had $11. worth of pledges, Sue had $10, Kevin had $125 and Donald had $25. In these four categories the under 16 year olds had to be riding with a licensed driver.

The winner of the trophy for most dollars pledged was Randy Waples with $334.25.

A new trophy was presented this year to the driver who had the most trouble on the runs but still managed to finish. The winner in this category was Al Schinck. Al had to run most of the first half on only one ski.

After a delicious, hot meal, Lions president Jim Funk drew the tickets for the lucky draw. Winners were Murray Swanston, Cathy Hawkins, Jeff Hamilton, Gary Smith, Butch Given, Sandy Bareham, Gary Ritchie, Jim Ferguson, Randy Waples, Al Schinck, Don Winters, Glen Roadknight, Brian Given, Stephen Thomson, Alice Johnson, Lea McDougal, Walter Swanston, Kevin March, Kevin Petty, Art Skidmore, Carl Meadows, Jessie Gellatly, Paul Geisel, Bruce McCormack, Darryl Nichol, Doug McLean, Patricia Yates, Gordon Thompson, Dwayne Keleher, Don Hills, Dave Walters and yours truly.

The prizes for the lucky draws were the result of the generosity of local businesses and snowmobile clubs.

The speaker for this week's lecture on world religions is R. Brown whose topic will be Buddhism. The lecture begins at 8 p.m. in the Music Room at Rockwood Centennial School.

The Rockwood Monthly Dance is on this Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Rockwood Community Centre. Music will be supplied by Jack Reeves. Cost of the ticket is $10 a couple. The doors will be open at 8 p.m.

Euchre night at St. Johns Parish Hall has been changed from every other Wednesday to every other Thursday beginning this Thursday evening (Jan. 28) at 8 p.m. Admission is still $2 and $1.50 for seniors.

Hold services in basement

by Doris Fines
The last two Sundays' church services have been held in the basement to conserve fuel, the organ having been moved down.

The first Osprings Scouts are busily working to earn their badges. Michael Schotsch received his sailing badge, and George Keating was presented with his collector's badge recently.

A representative from the Wellington Dufferin Health Unit came out and spoke to the Girl Guides and their mothers, at last week's meeting.

Mrs. Wesley Bruce has returned to her home in Whitewood, Sask., after visiting for a month here with various members of her family.

The annual meeting of Knox Presbyterian Church will be held the Sunday afternoon of February 21, following a pot luck lunch.

There was a good turnout for the church euchre on Saturday night. Anna Stubbington and Glen Jackson won the high scores, and Liz Ferrier and Judy Parker had low scores. Helen Crewson got the prize for the most lone hands.

One day at noon hour 25 students and four adults enjoyed cross country skiing in Grundy's fields.
