

Janet Allan and Laurence DeWolfe were married in Toronto on December 19. They are both students at Knox College.

Janet Allan weds Dec. 19

Weston Presbyterian Church, Weston, was the setting for the December 19 wedding of Janet Allan and D. Laurence DeWolfe.

Janet, of 38 Huntley St., Toronto, is the daughter of Grant and Mary Allan, 55 Lake Ave., Acton. Laurence, of 32 Melody Rd., Weston, is the son of Donald and Dorothy DeWolfe, Stellarton, Nova Scotia. Both are students at Knox College, University of Toronto.

Rev. Dr. John N. Buchanan and Rev. Dr. Forbes Thomson were the officiating ministers with Beth Barron as organist.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Mary Howson, Toronto. Paul McLean, of Toronto filled in at the last minute for the groomsmen Geoffrey Howson, who was ill. Janet was given in marriage by her father. Special guests attending the ceremony were the groom's parents and his two sisters, all from the Maritimes.

Prior to her marriage Janet was guest of honor at many special gatherings. A household shower for the bride's family and friends was held at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Susan Sheehan; and a household shower at Knox College was attended by members of the third year class and the family. A presentation was held by the Lake and Park Ave. neighbors. The couple honeymooned in Ottawa.

Poison Prevention Week

Every year thousands of children across the country are poisoned, often carelessly. Preventing some of those tragedies is the aim of Poison Prevention Week proclaimed in Halton Region for the week of March 22 to 26.

1981 councillors' attendance

Miller at every council meeting

Esqueping's Russ Miller was the only ward one or two representative on Halton Hills council to compile a spotless attendance record at 1981 council meetings.

However, his two ward two colleagues, Pam Sheldon and George Maltby were the only members from the two wards who missed more than 10 of the 61 council, general committee and planning board meetings held in 1981.

Miller attended all 27 council meetings, missed two of 15 planning board meetings, and just one of the 19 general committee meetings.

Ward one's Terry Grubbe missed a total of six meetings last year. She was absent for one council meeting, three planning board meetings and two general committee meetings.

Acton representative Dave Whiting was absent for seven meetings. He missed one council meeting, six planning board meetings and was in attendance
