

Jim Funk, left, president of the Rockwood Lions Club received 500 brand new $1 bills from Neil Millson and Roy Gray, who held a Christmas dance and gave their proceeds to the local club.

Rockwood

Family homeless after house blaze

Registration for kindergarten at Eramosa Public School will be on Monday morning March 15. If you are aware of a kindergarten-age child in the Eramosa public school area, they would appreciate it if you would contact the school at 856-4512.

Get well wishes are extended to the village foreman, Wayne Duby, who is resting at home after a stay in hospital. Duby injured his hand while clearing snow recently and has required surgery. We hope to see you back at work, soon, Wayne.

The Rockwood Home and School Association is having a skating party at the Ball Park on Sunday February 13 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Weather permitting they will have a bonfire, snow sculpturing, and a snowball toss. Hot chocolate, coffee, tea and donuts will be available. They are hoping students, parents and teachers will get together and have a fun day.

Don't forget the Pancake Supper on Tuesday February 23 at Rockmosa Community Centre. Supper will be served from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. The supper is organized by the parent committee of the Rockwood Brownie, Guide and Pathfinders to help defray costs for the year. Adults will be charged $4, children under 14 $2, and preschoolers will be fed free.

The Rockmosa monthly dance will be on February 27 at the Rockmosa Community Centre from 9 a.m. to 1 a.m. Music will be provided by the Entertainers. According to the dance committee, the tickets are selling fast, so if you haven't got yours yet, give Jenny Milton a call at 856-9095.

Slides shown during meeting

There was an excellent turnout at the first luncheon of the new year hosted by the United Church Women.

The Friendly Seniors met in their room at the Community Hall on Wednesday with 22 persons present. Isabel Munro, a resident of the new subdivision was a guest. Mrs. Connie Ferguson and Charlie Perry, Acton, showed some lovely slides of trips that are available from Denny's Bus Line Ltd. The Seniors really enjoyed the entertainment by Charlie Perry with his harmonica and guitar. It was announced that the men will be the conveners for the meeting on October 6.

Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson convened the hot dinner served by the Community Club ladies to the folks who attended the annual meeting of the Shorthorn Association held on Saturday in the hall.

Many get well wishes are extended to Claude Brinklow, a former resident of this community and Acton, who is presently confined to Guelph General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Davis, Michael and Jennifer and Mrs. Marie David who has just returned from a Florida vacation, visited with Mrs. James and Mrs. William Gilverton.

Ospringle

Store owners arrive soon from England

Mr. and Mrs. Darshan Ram have purchased the Ospringle store from Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Tunney, and the business, consisting of general store, restaurant and gas station, began under the new management last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ram are at present in England, and will be arriving here in a couple of weeks, after arrangements are finalized in selling their business in England, which is a general store, liquor store and post office. They have a son and daughter who may arrive earlier. In the meantime, the store here is under the management of Ramesh Parmar, who comes from Stoney Creek, and has been living in Canada for five and a half years. Diane Loeffler is on full time help, with Kim Fitzgerald coming in the evenings, and Jackie VanderVlugt and Sue Lich helping on weekends. Breakfasts, lunches, and the usual fare, can be purchased in the restaurant. The doors are open weekdays from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

brated her 100th birthday in November, will be sorry to hear she is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph. We hope she will soon be feeling better.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hurren on the death of Clarence's mother Mrs. Jack Hurren, at Milton Manor, at the age of 94. Mrs. Hurren, with her husband and family lived on the 4th Line of Erin Township for many years.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Alvin Fisher on Saturday, a former resident of this community, who has been of late years a resident in a nursing home at South River. The funeral is Wednesday afternoon at the Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton.
