Arlene Bruce hurt in crash

Acton member of the Halton Board of Education, Arlene Bruce, was badly hurt in a car accident early Friday morning on Highway 25 just north of 22 Sideroad. She was returning from the board meeting in Burlington.

Mrs. Bruce was coming north when her car collided with a vehicle going south driven by William Miller of Oakville.

She was taken to Georgetown Hospital with severe head and leg injuries. Acton firefighters were called to the scene to cut her out of her car.

Miller and his passenger, Gary Thomas of Milton, were both taken to Milton Hospital with minor injuries.

Milton OPP report the mishap took place around 2 a.m. Friday and there was an estimated $3,000 damage to the Bruce vehicle and $4,000 damage to the Miller car.

Halton Hills recreation director Tom Shepard drew the Actario tickets Saturday.

Actario winners

Joan Boychuck and Anna Lemay, Acton, shared the weekly Actario draw prize for $350.

Mac and Joyce Sprowl, 159 Churchill Rd. South, went home with vouchers from Nielsen's Acton Photo and Camera, and Acton Family Cleaners, while Olga Carter, Mexico City, and Stella Brunelle 16 Acton Blvd., shared a ticket which was drawn from vouchers from Acton Pharmacy, Acton Bowling Lanes and Family Cleaners. Vouchers from Steadman's, Freezer Frenzy, Ed's In 'N Out, and Family Cleaners were won by Don McDonald, 39 Churchill Rd. North, and Wayne Aitken, RRA Acton won vouchers from IGA, Home Hardware and Acton Family Restaurant. Lloyd Broadst and Lynda Ruse of the Y board won vouchers from Jolliffe Shoes, AB Foodland and Jug City.

Chocolate bunnies, donated by the Acton Lions Club, were won by Bill and Kathy Sanford, Limehouse, Jim and Ena Gibson, 120 Hill St. West, and Rena Arbic and Elma Braida, Acton.

Region finances improve

In a report last week, a line of a story about region finances was accidentally left out.

The story should have said "the mayor said things are looking better financially at the region now and Councillor Dave Whiting countered they couldn't look worse than they did at the end of 1980. Pomeroy didn't share Whiting's feelings."
