Choir gowns dedicated

Mrs. G. MacDougall The March meeting of the U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Betty Snow with a good attendance.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Rene Beattie with Scripture from Proverbs 25. All joined in the singing of the hymn "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life". There was a reading on life situations and how they were dealt with. Correspondence was read and plans were made for three ladies to attend the 20th birthday party of the U.C.W. at Fergus in April.

Members were invited to attend a Tupperware Party (fund raising) at the home of Mrs. E. Jennings, Mrs. Freda Thompson and the hostess served lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

The next noon luncheon sponsored by the U.C.W. will be in the Community Hall on Wednesday, April 7. Brian and Brenda Snow from Georgetown spent the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Snow.

Tara and Troy MacDougall entertained guests at their joint birthday party on Wednesday. The afternoon was spent roller-skating in Guelph.

April is cancer month and one of the following canvassers will be knocking on your door in the near future. Please be kind whether you give or decline. The ladies are: Mrs. Joan Ball; Mrs. Jean Turowski; Mrs. Jane Thatcher; Mrs. Evelyn Barden; Mrs. Betty Snow; Mrs. Pamela Durrell and Mrs. Jean Rinehart.

The Gilbertson ladies opened their home for the March meeting of the Presbyterian Women. Mrs. Barden opened the meeting with a reading "The World Awakens to Spring."

Communications were read and plans were made to forward money to the W.M.S. Waterloo-Wellington Presbyterian. A report was given on planned improvements to the church

Dublin WI
Public relations meeting topic

by Laura Dennis
It was Public Relations night at the meeting of Dublin Women's Institute Thursday held at the home of Mrs. E. Norton, Mill St. E., Acton.

With that theme in mind, the Roll Call was answered by naming a way in which we can make our Institute better known in the community. Mrs. Clark Armstrong, as Governor, explained the meaning of the words "Public Relations." A good feeling amongst members was the basis of good Public Relations.

For her good work as leader of the Catering Committee for some time, Mrs. E. Wilson was presented with an electric carving knife, and Mrs. J.C. Dennis was given a Federated Women in Canada Pin for her duties as Press Reporter. Both had carried out their duties in the name of Public Relations. Many interesting thoughts were put into the talk by Mrs. Armstrong which was appreciated by the ladies.

A good turnout of ladies was present at the meeting. Mrs. H. Besley, the president, opened the meeting with the verse entitled "I try to make life simple." Considerable correspondence was read by Mrs. J. Kranendonk, secretary, and discussed.

An appeal from the local Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society to help reach their objective of $15,000 in the spring campaign was read, and cancer kits were handed out to canvassers.

As well as individual give-ings, $50 was approved to be given by the organization for the work of the basement. Mr. Bill MacDonald gave a nice donation to the choir gown fund in memory of his late wife, Alma.

The Good Friday Morning breakfast is coming up on April 9 and the bacon has been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lockett and homemade bread by Mr. and Mrs. N. Bernecker. Tentative plans are underway for a yard sale and strawberry social.

Mrs. J. Gilbertson expressed her thanks for all the kindness expressed to her at her 90th birthday party. The roll call was answered by 12 members and Mrs. Herb Gilbertson received a gift for wearing the most green in honor of St. Patrick.

Dedication for Pennies of the Least Coin was read by Mrs. J. Chamberlain, Mrs. J. Henry gave the second study on Neighbors or Strangers with scripture and hymns. A contest on capitals of different countries was won by Mrs. W. Lasby.

Mrs. Charles Lasby is to be remembered with flowers on her 85th birthday on March 28. Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Henry and the hostesses with birthday cake and many candies for Mrs. J. Gilbertson. A lucky cup and saucer prize went to Mrs. Joan Ball. Courtesies were extended by Mrs. W. McLean.

In a joyful and uplifting service of anthems and hymns at a memorial service for a dear choir member, Alma MacDonald, beautiful new wine choir gowns and gold coral collars were dedicated to the memory of all those of the Eden Mills Presbyterian Church who have built up this house of worship in love, faith and hope.

The gowns will be worn proudly in honor of the love and labor of those departed. The elders assisted the ladies as they donned their gowns and Rev. Carrie Doehring assisted with the collars. This was followed by the heart-felt singing of the old hymn "The Church In the Wildwood."

Lloyd and Doris Boyd spend five days in New York last week, attending the American International Fur Fair.

Meredith Smye and Pat Pearce went to Florida for the school break, and spent an enjoyable week on Anna Maria Island, where they said the weather was perfect.

Max and Bonnie Schotsch, Heidi and Michael, spent the week at Ottawa holidaying and visiting friends. They came home by Burk's Falls, bringing Bonnie's mother Mrs. Rose Bryon, home with them for a visit.

Our first robin timed his arrival with the first day of spring. I hope he knew what he was doing, for the weatherman apparently didn't. It was such a thrill to see him perched on the branch of the tree, singing his little robin song, telling us spring was on the way.

It was with sorrow that word was received of the death of Dorothy (Mrs. Elwood) Jackson, a former resident of the community. Sympathy is extended to her husband and to her daughter Edna (Mrs. Ken Knight) of Palmerston. Funeral service was from the MacIntyre and Wilkie Funeral Home, Guelph.

Prizes for the euchre held at the church recently were: ladies first - Jean Jackson, men's first - Ward Bruce, lone hands - Flora Bruce, and low score Byron Bruce.

Rev. Noble Dean was back in the pulpit on March 20 giving as his sermon, "There's no love without sacrifice, and no salvation without the cross."

Don Hills and George Day sign some of the 1,000 copies of their new book, a collection of almost 100 photographs of historical Rockwood. Some of the photos the pair compiled by contacting about 30 people and borrowing prints and negatives dating back to 1921. Many photos came from the collection of Richard Harris, a former Free Press correspondent.

Ospringle Cubs tour police, fire stations

by Doris Flies
The Ospringle Cub group went to Guelph recently, and toured the fire station and Guelph police station, receiving some enlightening information on the importance of the duties these men are called upon to perform. Last week the Cubs went skating at Caledon, and at the end of a vigorous, enjoyable day, they ate their supper in Mr. Misurka's woods.

The Ospringle Scouts are going to Erin to earn their badges with the Erin Scouts.

Volunteers needed

Volunteers are being sought to help organize this year's Pioneer Days in Rockwood as well as for swimming lessons in the village this summer. Those interested should call Chris Haworth at 856-4968.

Carney obituary correction

Due to errors made by the family in filling out the obituary report there were mistakes in last week's Free Press story about John Churchill Carney of Rockwood.

Mr. Carney was a member of Orange Lodge Number 76, not 761. Also Jack Totton and Ray Thompson were pallbearers, not Jack Totton and Ray Totton as was reported.

Guest speaker at Lions

Dr. David Van Der bent will talk about his travels and show slides at the April 7 dinner meeting of the Rockwood and District Lions Club. Any Eramosa senior citizens interested in attending are asked to contact Jim Funk at 853-4801 after April 1.
