ance of the three Women's Institute Branches. "Who is caring for our Elderly" was a timely and interesting paper, prepared by Mrs. D. Appleyard, and read by Mrs. Hunter in her absence.

Many good wishes will go to Mr. and Mrs. Horace Blyth, as they celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary on March 28 when they will receive friends at Ebenezer United Church. A "bit of this and that" was quickly made into an attractive floral arrangement by Mrs. Hunter as she cleverly demonstrated for the ladies.

Members were reminded that the annual meeting will be held on April 15 at the home of Mrs. G. McMillan, 25 Sideroad, with a smorgasbord at 6.30 p.m., and to bring their dishes. Standing Committee Convenors are requested to have their annual reports ready. A delightful lunch of a choice of pies was served by the committee of the month, Mrs. D. Noblett, Mrs. J. Kranendonk and Mrs. W. Watkins. A sincere thank you was voiced by Mrs. Brian Aldie

Churchill Pancake breakfast Easter Sunday

by J. Turner

Thirty-five Churchill C.C. members enjoyed an excursion last Sunday to Mountsberg Wildlife Centre near Campbellville. Under sunny skies they toured the sugar bush, inspecting methods old and new of making maple syrup. Original Indian equipment, pioneer pots and kettles, and a modern stainless steel evaporator were all in use. Horse drawn wagons offered rides to and from the bush, maple products were for sale and pancakes and syrup were available, but the lineups for these treats were long and tiresome, and we avoided most of them preferring to explore the various trails.

One trail led to several enclosures where hawks and owls were on display. Another led along a high fence behind which wapiti (elk) were grazing, and further along a half-dozen buffalo. In the barn, sheep, goats, rabbits and guinea pigs, and their young, submitted patiently to curious stares and occasional pats from outstretched hands.

In the administration building a series of brief nature films gave one a chance to rest. The walls were decorated with letters and artwork of school children, attesting to the popularity of Mountsberg for class trips. Many thanks to Terry Soutiere for organizing a delightful afternoon, to Denny Buslines for providing the bus, and to Marie Anderson for driving it.

Next Saturday evening, April 3rd, Churchill Choir has reserved 20 seats for Stewarttown School's presentation of "Lil Abner" at the new Halton Hills cultural centre, in Georgetown. One of our choir members is starring as Daisy Mae. There are only a few tickets left—please contact Joanne Turner right away if you want to join us.

Churchill C.C. Men invite you to an Easter Sunday pancake breakfast at the church at 9.30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binnie, Fourth Line, attended the wedding in Ballinacree United Church last weekend of their niece, Sandra Binnie, Acton, and Ted Zarn, Manitoba. Charlie's two sisters, Janet Binnie, Earl Grey, Sask., and Mrs. Kate Johnston, Southey, Ontario, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Agnes Binnie, Earl Grey, Saskatoon, were down for the wedding and are spending a few days with Mac and Charlie this week.

Jan Soutiere, Fourth Line, and her two daughters, Laurel and Kelly, spent two or three days in Toronto last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manning.

Ebenezer

by Mrs. R. McLean

Next Sunday, Palm Sunday communion will be observed. The UCW meet on Wednesday, April 7, at 1.30 p.m. at the church. Mrs. McGee of Georgetown will show slides of the Passion Play at Oberammergau. Ebenezer Stewards are holding an auction on April 23, at Brookville Hall. The proceeds for a new roof on the church. Mr. Finley's topic was "The Torn Veil".

out, it was a cool reception for Gordon and Anna Aitken to step off the plane at Toronto to our weather. They were visiting with Anna's brother and sister-in-law, Sherlock and Millie Foreman and their family. Sherlock was on vacation and took them sightseeing, including to the museum of Science and History, the Fort Worth Art Museum, and Kneibart Art Museum.

Recently the school students were shown a film called "I Had A Dream". It was the moving story of the Terry Fox Marathon of Hope, showing the courage and determination of this great Canadian.

The school staff held a luncheon to thank the parents who helped run the electives program. Candle holders and candles were presented to Mrs. Vlietstra, Mrs. Mathies, Mrs. Andruskievicz, Mrs. Dubeau, and Mrs. Thomas. A miniature fern planter and plant and a set of floral place mats were given to Mrs. Irene Sinclair, who has tutored the little Polish student Joann Plecke, for the past three months.

A white elephant sale was held on the last day of school before the March break. They realized a $144 profit, and with to thank all the parents who contributed to it.

Pancake breakfast

There will be a pancake breakfast at Flockmoss this Sunday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. sponsored by the Rockwood and District Lions Club.
