

Meeting for local firms at AHS Thursday

Owners of local businesses are reminded of the meeting tomorrow night (Thursday) at Acton High School at which the free Ontario Ministry of Industry and Trade management consulting program will be outlined.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. and from the businesses signing up for the program 25 firms will be selected to participate. A local committee, coordinated by the Acton Chamber of Commerce, has been named to select the firms which will be evaluated.

Daughters of Knox

See Holy Land slides

The regular meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held on April 5. President Faye Pink opened the meeting with a reading entitled, "It Isn't the Church, it's You." "Living For Jesus" was sung, and the Club's mottoes repeated. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given. Roll-call was answered by presenting various items for the craft show next October. Jane Robertson reported on the last euchre, held at the end of March. Several items of business were discussed and it was announced that the Young People will hold a breakfast for the public, on Saturday, May 1. The issue of having Associate members in the Daughters of Knox was voted upon and passed. President Faye welcomed two guests to the meeting.

The meeting was then handed over to Vivian Swallow and her group, who conducted the Worship Service for Easter from Glad Tidings. Faye Pink then introduced Harold Swallow who gave the commentary on slides of the Holy Land, shown by his wife, Vivian. Also read scripture passages suitable to the various historic places shown. Gladys Price expressed the thanks of the members to the Swallows for their most interesting portrayal of "The Life of Christ." Refreshments were served and a time of fellowship enjoyed by all.

Thursday was soup day at the Acton Library where Monika Meyer, Michael Meyer, Darrel Bridge and Beverly Bridge ate soup and watched movies.

Mental retardation drive

Need canvas volunteers

Volunteers are needed to canvass door-to-door during mental retardation week, May 17-22. This is the annual fund-raising campaign of the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded.

About 500 volunteers are needed to cover urban Georgetown and Acton. Each volunteer visits 15 to 20 households. They distribute postcards which describe the association's work in the community, and they invite householders to support this work by making a tax-deductible donation.

All the money received goes to the local association, according to Herbert T. Arnold, association president and fund-raising committee chairman. The door-to-door canvass is especially important to the association because there will be no mail-out canvass this year.

Chris Dewdney is in charge of the canvass in Acton and she says that the project has been streamlined from earlier years in order to reduce costs, and to make it easier for the volunteers.

The top priority, according to Leo Van Raamsdonk, is to get enough volunteer canvassers. Anyone interested is urged to call Van Raamsdonk at 877-1412 or Edith Hillman at 853-2588.

Speyside people should call Acton fire dept., it's closer Speyside residents may call either the Acton or Milton fire department, but service will be quicker from Acton.

When a problem is brought to Fire Chief Mick Holmes he takes immediate action. Councillor Pam Sheldon told Halton Hills council recently. She said less than a week after she told him residents of the Speyside area didn't know which fire department to call since they were halfway between Milton and Acton, the fire chief personally visited the residents.

Sheldon explained Holmes and the Milton fire chief drove the area from each fire hall, checking the response time, mileage and number of homes.

Finding the response time was faster from Acton, the two chiefs decided to rearrange the fire area boundaries. Now the Acton boundary extends south down to Ten Sideroad to the Fourth Line and 15 Sideroad to the Town Line and down the Town Line.

Holmes wrote letters to each of the 74 residents in the Speyside area and visited them. The letters delivered to each home explained while they could still call either fire department, the Acton fire hall is closer. Included was a phone sticker with the fire department phone number and a larger one to stick up on the wall for use by babysitters.

Councillor Sheldon said she was most impressed with Holmes' actions and commented, "It was just super and gave such a personal touch, that the residents were reassured." She added, "I just wanted to thank the chief and let everyone know what he did."

Acton firefighters responded to this chimney fire call in Speyside last Wednesday around 6 p.m.

Sandra Binnie weds

Ballinfad United Church was the setting for the March 20 wedding of Sandra Ellen Binnie and Ted Norman Zarn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Binnie, 173 Perth St., Acton. Until recently she was on the nursing staff of St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Zarn, Reston, Manitoba. He is a farmer in Reston.

Rev. James Fraser of Owen Sound officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Sandra Early was the organist, and Mrs. Violet Brown sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Sandra wore an ivory colored bridal gown of brocaded satin which was her mother's wedding gown. Her veil was a family heirloom of handmade Belgian lace. It was of ivory color and 55-years-old. She carried pink and red sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Melody Stewart of Acton was matron of honor. She wore a dusty rose colored gown and carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

The groom's brother, Bill Zarn was bestman. Ushers were Jonathan Binnie, Acton, the bride's brother and Kevin Lee, Acton, friend of the bride and groom.

An afternoon reception and dinner were held at Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton. Ken Allan, uncle of the bride was master of ceremonies. The bride's mother made the wedding cake.

Three miscellaneous showers were held for Sandra and Ted, one by the nursing staff of the continuing care unit of St. Joseph's Hospital; one for relatives and friends, hosted by the bride's aunt; and one by the members of the Acton Pentecostal Church. A presentation was made by the ladies' group of the same church.

Guests attended from Manitoba, Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Geraldton and Hepworth Ontario.

The couple are making their home in Reston, Manitoba.

Joyce Finley of XI Epsilon Chi sorority is one of several members who decorated Easter eggs at Stedman's at three sessions in the past two weeks.

Ladies' Fair Board

Fair display third

by Nancy Cook

The April meeting of the Ladies' Fair Board was held at the home of Marilyn Murray. Several of our members attended the Annual Convention of Agricultural Societies at the Royal York Hotel in February.

One of the highlights of the convention was Acton Fair's win in the Display Competition. Competing against 40 other fairs in the A and B class, Acton placed third. The Display was a culmination of both urban and rural aspects of our fair, bringing together all parts of the hall and outside exhibits.

A reminder to all members of both the ladies' and men's boards about the garage sale May 24-26. It will be at the home of Roland Height and we need donations. Please call Mr. Height or Mr. Stull if you have a donation that needs to be picked up.

Education Week April 25-May 1

Education Week is coming up and the theme this year is Growing Together. Council proclaimed the week of April 25 to May 1 as Education Week in the town Monday night.

Osprige

Cheynes, Camerons enjoy week's Caribbean cruise

by Doris Fines

Danny Winter met with an unfortunate accident recently, when his thumb got caught in some machinery he was working with. It had to be amputated, which, aside from being quite painful, will be very inconvenient, it being on his right hand.

"Aunt Martha" Jackson, Osprige's grand old lady, passed away on Tuesday in Guelph General Hospital, four months after she celebrated her 100th birthday. Funeral services were on Thursday at Acton. When she was in her own home she was happiest when she had her friends around her, and she will be missed by all who knew her.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Baldwin of Ancaster, visited last weekend with their aunt Mrs. Dave Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Fraser visited a few days last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kerr at Barrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Ferguson and Ryan, Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris Fines, were guests on Easter Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Redman, Tara and Melanie, at Mount Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cheyne of Acton accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Fraser on an enjoyable Caribbean cruise. They began their week-long cruise at Puerto Rico, stopping off to tour the islands of St. Thomas, Martinique, Caracao and Aruba, then back to spend a week at San Juan in Puerto Rico. Sugar cane and cotton fields were plentiful on the islands, they said, and Aruba the most beautiful island of all.
