The Y's News

May/82

The Y's Menettes, our ladies service club, are celebrating tonight! It is their 25th anniversary of service to the Acton YMCA and to the community. Sister clubs from Owen Sound, Orillia, Kitchener, Niagara Falls, North York, Woodstock, Kingston and Barrie have been invited. An invitation is extended to any former Acton members to attend the celebrations tonight, at 7:30 in the 'Y' building. New members would also be welcomed.

The 'Y's Men, after enjoying two successful trips in April, are meeting on the 11th and 25th of this month, the second meeting being a dinner meeting. Any prospective new members can call Lyle Prueter, at 853-2572, for more information.

The 'Y' Board members have been busy spring cleaning the building, with more plans for renovation and decoration during the summer months. Programming has been very successful this Spring, with many classes filled to capacity. Our apologies to the few people who had to be turned away. Come early in the Fall! We hope to offer you more programs in brighter surroundings.

The 'Y' summer camps are being held at the Kelso conservation area this year. A day camp, creative arts camp, sailing camp and more! For more information call 853-1070 or 877-6163.

The "Y" is for You — serving Acton and area!

DEAFNESS.

BREAKING OUT TAKES MORE THAN SYMPATHY.
