Busy time for ladies

by J. Turner
Churchill CCW held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Walsma. Vice-president Lydia Kerr, presiding. Mrs. Olga Thompson led in worship using the shortened version of the World's Day of Prayer Theme: People of God, Gathered for Worship, Scattered for Service. The roll call was answered with an exchange of roots, bulbs and potted plants.
Churchill anniversary services are May 30, and it was decided to serve a light lunch of sandwiches and cake after the morning service so that visitors may have an opportunity to chat with friends. The ladies are having a work bee on the 18th and 19th to spring clean the church to have it spick and span for the Anniversary.
There is a wedding at the church on June 5 for which the group is catering, a turkey dinner, and the Sunday School picnic the following day, June 6, for which they provide the prizes and assist in the usual manner with the picnic lunch. All in all, a very busy few weeks lie ahead for a very busy few.

On Thursday May 13, Churchill CCW catered a dinner for the ladies' group of Knox Presbyterian, Acton. About 25 ladies sat down to a beef dinner, and seemed to enjoy the treat of letting someone else do the work for a change.

Plan for district annual

by Vera Black
The Rock-a-long Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. H. Bayne May 4 with 15 members present. The newly elected president, Mrs. L. Leroy, opened the meeting with a seasonal poem, followed by the singing of the Ode, and the repeating of the Mary Stewart Collect.
The new opening time for the institute meetings is 8 p.m. The secretary Mrs. J. Ramsey read the minutes of the past meeting and the treasurer Mrs. J. Ramsey followed with the reading of the treasurer's report. The usual business routine followed.
Attention was focussed on the District Annual of South Wellington Women's Institutes to be held in Dublin United Church, Guelph, May 11. Masborough Institute is to be hostess. The theme for the District Annual is publicity, promotion and pride and focus on the Women's Institute or W.I. in the limelight.
A workshop was held at Arkell, April 19 on the topic resolutions. Mrs. J. Ramsden attended this meeting from Rock-a-Long and presented an interesting report.
A donation of a large coffee pot and tea kettle was offered to the Rockwood Sunshine Club which was gladly accepted by Mrs. C. Robertson, president of the Club. The quilt coupons are to be handed in at the June meeting. A discussion took place about possibly going to the Stone Road Mall or Zellers to sell the rest of the tickets.
A donation of $5 is to be sent to the Wildlife Association. The Roll Call—"A Country Sound" brought forth interesting remarks. Mrs. Leroy gave an informative talk on "Bees", showing some necessary equipment in handling bees. This meeting was a "Green Thumb" meeting. A Penny Table was set up displaying varied plants, bulbs, seeds. Each member contributed.
The meeting closed with the singing of O Canada; the new version. Mrs. A. McDuffe and Mrs. C. Nellis, and the hostess Mrs. H. Bayne served a delicious lunch.
