ACTON VILLA SOCCER

ACTON VILLA "B"

Last Wednesday Acton Villa "B" team provided a strong performance in their home opener to defeat Varian of Georgetown 5-0. Mr. Utility of the team Greg Malby, who performs well in any position, played goal for Acton and earned the shut-out. Bob Little scored a pair of goals for Acton with Emilie Milnarevic, Dave Entwistle and Tony Wright added singles to round out the scoring.

With four points after their first two games Villa "B" is starting off on the right foot.

Last week Acton Villa "A" team was defeated by I.C.C.M. 4-3.

A poor first half was costly for Acton as they fell behind by four goals but a stronger second half closed the gap. With the score 4-3 Acton had a goal disallowed.

Coach Dave Lewis was pleased with the team's performance in the second half and feels that when all team members put forward an effort they will be tough, to beat.

Dave Banks scored two goals for Acton with Dave Dadds adding a single. Ken Hilditch played a strong game in defence.

The Industrials lost their only game of the week to Fread 7-3.

Scoring single runs for the Industrials were Tim Evans, Glen McKenzie and Ken Hurren.

Furniture hammered the Bears 17-9 in their only game of the week.

Bob Turkosz scored four runs for Furniture, with Norm Carter, Dave Allen, John Ahern, Al Campbell and Wade Vickery crossing the plate with two runs each. Fred Allen, Mike Morris and Balley added single runs.

ACTON LADIES RECREATIONAL SOFTBALL

by Karen Smith

Marauders went down to defeat at the gloves and bats of Ballinfad 13-8 on May 25 at Robert Little. Elaine Bouwman pitched the win and scored a home run. Two other homers—one with bases loaded—were tucked away by Caroline Tilcox, while Vivian Bremner smashed a triple. Betty Nolan and Ann Hayward each batted a double, and Betty Nolan, Vera Longstreet and Caroline Tilcox totalled two runs each. Elaine Bouwman, Vivian Bremner, Linda St. Pierre, Sonia Bray, Martha Lewis, Ann Hayward and Sharon Bremner each tallied one run.

Teresa McEnaney and Cheryl Daponte pitched for the Marauders Ann McLean led the scoring with two runs—being a sliding double that caused an injury. Triple baggers were slammed by Joanne Crabtree and Karen Smith. Cheryl Daponte, Brenda Hillier, Kim Young and Wendy Ryan each scored one run to end a fun game coached by Jim Bailey, Paul Metcalfe and Mick Holmes.

May 26, L.L. Ford whipped Rockwood 26-0 at M-Z Bennett. Deb Manes, Sue Robson, Laurie Kruk, Kathy Hayward, Pat Henderson and Jan Britton all rounded the bags three times. Sue Stone, Georgina Beerman and Cindy McGilloway scored two runs each, while singles were scored by Deb Field and Fran Blow.

Rockwood's Marlene Walker blasted two double baggers and Cathy Tanner and Fran McKnight each hit a double. Betty Burnett, Jean McNabb, Cathy Tanner, Katie Winters, Jan Osborne and Kay Nilsen each hit singles. But despite batting power, rounding home plate seemed to be the impossible dream during this game.

May 29 found Rockwood and Marauders having a wild and foggy game. When the infielders could see the ball, the outfielders couldn't and vice-versa. Trailing behind for the first few innings, the Marauders finally pulled ahead to win 21-9. Leading the scoring for Marauders was Shirley White with four runs and batting five singles. Jayne Sequin and Karen Smith scored three runs each. One of Jayne's was a smashing triple bagger. Two runs each were scored by Sharon Hamilton, Donna Jeffrey, Joanne Crabtree, and Phyllis Garrett. Singles were added by Cheryl Daponte, Kim Young and Wendy Ryan.

Jean McNabb, Darlene Cox and Cathy Tanner led the Rockwood scoring with two runs each while Marlene Walker, Fran McKnight and Katie Winters tagged a run apiece.

Ule Lewis smashed a triple and a single, then oh-oh, was called out for leadoff.

Double baggers were slammed by Jean McNabb, Darlene Cox, Cathy Tanner and Maria Reid and singles were stroked by Jean McNabb, Marlene Walker, Cathy Tanner, Betty Burnett, Fran McKnight, Kay Nilsen, Katie Winters and Sherry Whittle.

Natural Resource Management ... It's Not Easy

That's why Ministry of Natural Resources staff are inviting you to Open Houses in June.

We want you to look at the pieces - your local forests, fish, wildlife, provincial parks and recreational areas, mineral resources and public lands and waters.

Later this summer we'll pull all the pieces together and present - for your comment - our district land use strategies. They are, quite simply, recommendations for how your local natural resources can be managed wisely.

But first, come and meet us, review the background information and give us your comments.
