

George Gidman

Doreen Uranick

Uranick wins heat

Friday Acton High's Doreen Uranick and George Gidman were at Centennial Stadium in Etobicoke to compete in the all-Ontario Finals (OFSAA). Doreen won her heat in the Junior Girls' 1500m race and was tenth in the finals. There were 24 other girls in this category. George's time wasn't fast enough to qualify in the Junior Boys' 400m race. There were 24 competitors in this event. On Saturday Doreen ran in the Junior Girls' 800m race, but didn't qualify for the finals. Deb Baum also competed on Saturday in the Midget Girls' Discus and placed 12th out of 24 competitors. Only the top eight went to the finals. Coach Bruce Andrews was pleased with his athletes' performances at the OFSAA Finals. He said they ran well for the amount of time they have been running and he thinks there's a bright future for these athletes.

Acton Ladies continue their winning ways

ACTON GIRLS
Carole Saxon
Acton Ladies continued their winning streak as they beat CRSC United by a score of 3-2. Barbara Wright scored early in the first half for Acton followed shortly by a goal from Jane Trueman. Good strong defensive play by Carolyn Billen, Gwyneth Gibb and Anne McCord kept CRSC at bay for most of the game and saved Acton from some close situations. Jane Trueman netted the winning goal for Acton.

Last week the ladies beat Georgetown 2-0 in Georgetown. Goals were scored by Jane Trueman and Carole Saxon.

ACTON FOXES
Acton Foxes are having problems with their start of the season. The Foxes fell 3-2 to Milton in their first game. Elke Zeissig and Vera Van Item tallied for the Foxes, but despite a strong effort from goalie Susan Wilson, Milton scored their winning goal five minutes from the end of the game.

ACTON STRINGERS
Monique Bartlett was outstanding in goal for the Stringers. Also Karen Van der Wal on was great on defence in a game which produced a 1-1 tie with Pineview last week. It was a good two way battle for both teams and a tie was a fair result. Belinda Ahsanka scored for Acton.

ACTON ANGELS
Angels played an exhibition game against Hillsburgh Pee-wees as a warm up for their season. Pam Stewart, Nancy Norton and Teri-Lyn Jeffries (Continued on page B4)
