St. Joseph's CWL

Members attended Diocesan convention

by Ann Montgomery

The final meeting of St. Joseph's CWL was held on Wednesday, June 16. A potluck dinner with many delectable dishes to whet the appetites of both our new and old members marked the closing of yet another season.

Following the dinner, a short business meeting took place. Our Spiritual Director, Father Ralph Diodati, opened the meeting with a prayer. Membership convener, Mrs. Loreta Sammit, reported that the League has 99 members to date. Mrs. Sammit feels we will be well over our goal of 100 members when she files her next report in September.

Plans were discussed for our annual Parish Picnic which will be held on September 5 at the United Church campgrounds.

Mary Margaret Dickinson, Ruth McMahon and Ann Donastan thanked the League members for sending them to the 62nd Hamilton Diocesan Convention which was held on June 4, 5, and 6 at Guelph University. Together with three other councils in the area, St. Joseph's, Acton cohosted this event and was responsible for the entertainment and special events throughout the weekend and also assisted with the hospitality convener'ship. The theme of this year's convention was "League Ministry to God and Canada." President Mary Margaret Dickinson gave an interesting and informative report and thanked all the members who worked at the Convention and those who attended some of the special events.

Father Diodati, speaking for himself and for the parish, expressed gratitude to the League for providing commemorative pins to all the participants who recently made their First Communion and Confirmation. He also thanked the members for sponsoring the receptions which took place in the Church Hall following the Sacrament of Confirmation, June 9 and the special 125th Anniversary Mass on Sunday afternoon, June 13.

Family Life Convener, Mrs. Ruth McMahon, reported that the following children were recently received into the Church through the Sacrament of Baptism: Kendrah Michelle, daughter of Fred and Judy Allen-Godparents, David and Christine Allen; Jacqueline, daughter of Ray and Deborah Dolmier-Godparents, William and Rachel Genler; Joel Michael, son of Michael and Elaine Petkoff-Godparents, Mike Petkoff and Jeanette Foster.

The evening was then concluded with an amusing replay of a skit performed by some of our League members at the Diocesan Convention. These "talented" ladies sang and acted out a spoof on one of our ever popular rummage sales. On this light note the meeting ended. Our next meeting takes place in September with the promise of lots of activities on the agenda.
