Knox Alert

After a very delicious supper of many varied dishes the Knox "Alert" Evening Group and their guests, members of the former WMS, adjourned to the other end of the Dr. A.C. Stewart Memorial Hall for their meeting, which was opened by the President Isabel McDonald giving a short reading on "Friendship". Irene Terry, Convener of the month, gave the Call to Worship, which was followed by Hymn 385—"Jesus Shall Reign".

The Scripture Reading was taken by Wilma Coles and Ruby Banks read an article "Getting a Pass" and also led in Prayer.

Hymn 631 was read responsively and Wilma read an article on the author of "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go". G. Matheson and Gladys Davidson sang the Hymn.

Hymn 318 "Blest Be the Tie that Binds" closed this part of the meeting.

The Offering was received and Isabel gave the Offertory Prayer. Isabel showed slides on her trips to B.C. and the Agawa Canyon, which were very much enjoyed, especially when we recognized other Actonians who were also on these trips.

The meeting was closed with the Mirpah Benediction and there were many "Thank You's" from our guests and best wishes for a good summer from everyone.

Smurf and his assistant Kelly White were in the downtown business section Saturday handing out $5 gift certificates.

Librarian Cathy Lepki pulled the Actario tickets Saturday.

Acton fair board announces hay crop contest winners

by Keith Aitken

The Acton Agricultural Society sponsored a hay crop competition on Monday, June 14. Judge John Nurse of Ashgrove visited 14 local farms to do the scoring. In this competition the hay crop is judged in the field prior to being harvested.

Judge Nurse commented "There was no such thing as a poor hay field in the competition and the bulk of the entries were near the high end of the score card. The counties, the fair, and especially the farmers involved, can take a well deserved measure of pride in producing such consistently high quality crops."

The top ten placings are: First - Robert Linham 83 1/2 points; Second - Lloyd & Stan McEnery 82 1/2; Third - Ted Brown 82; Fourth - Howard Donnell 81 1/2; Fifth - Ken Murray 81; Sixth - Don Buttenham 80 1/2; Seventh - Keith Aitken 80; Eighth - A.H. McPhedran & Son 80; Ninth - Robert Denny 80; Tenth - R.M. Storey 87 1/2.
