Touring crafts show

A touring show of crafts by representatives of the Ontario Crafts Council, Mid-West Region will be in Georgetown from August 6 to the end of the month at Georgetown Public Library and Cultural Centre. The show includes examples of work being done in fibre, glass, metal, wood and clay. It also includes samples of work by local artist Agnes Olive.

Dramatic Arts

There is still room for children between the ages of seven and 12 years of age to enroll in Halton Hills Recreation Department's Dramatic Arts program. The program is run in week-long sessions at Georgetown High School, and will continue to the end of August. Children get a chance to try pantomime, skits, television and stage workshops. If you're interested, call the recreation department at 877-5185, ext. 62.

Cheltenham Cup

The Cheltenham Gold Cup International Horse Show will be held at Lothlorien Stables, Third Line W., Cheltenham from Tuesday, Aug. 10 to Sunday, Aug. 15. The event features the Rothmans $20,000 World Cup Class of international jumpers on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 15 at 1 p.m. The events begin each day at 9 a.m. Included in the show are classes for hunters, jumpers, ponies, and special children's events.

Threshing Days

Relive the old-time harvest days August 14 and 15 at the Royal Agricultural Museum, Milton. There are threshing demonstrations, including machine and wooden flail methods, bale-throwing competition, and regular demonstrations of spinning, weaving, blacksmithing and open hearth cooking. Enjoy a Thresherman's Lunch served in the museum's picnic pavillion, the Cradle 'n' Flail. The museum is located five kilometres west of Milton on Tremaine Rd., just south of Hwy. 401. It's open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily until Oct. 11.
