

Legion happenings

by Harry Norton
Last Saturday friends and family of comrade Ray Agnew gathered to salute Ray on the occasion of his 80th birthday. Through the years Ray has entertained hundreds of us with his impromptu playing in the lounge at the Branch. Ray has been active in Acton community musical groups for over 50 years and it was fitting that Citizens' Band members, past and present, and the Choralists both turned out to entertain and honor Ray on his birthday.

Saturday August 28th is going to be a busy day for Legion members with something for everyone. The Branch baseball team have been practicing hard and Dave Manes says they are now ready to represent us at the annual Legion tournament to be held under the auspices of the Erin Branch. Games will be played at both the Erin and the Hillsburgh ball fields. Turn out and support our team.

Our annual Corn Roast is also on Saturday and the corn should be ready by 7 p.m. There will be music for dancing after you have your fill of corn. Free corn and free entertainment make this last 'bash' of the summer a real bargain. The ball players will

Rezoning approved

Rezoning for a real estate office in a house on Main St. north was approved Monday night by Halton Hills council.

The rezoning application was made by D and D Nikic.

Before the rezoning bylaw is processed a site plan will have to be prepared and approved. Council will have to approve a parking, drainage and grading plan as well as provisions for snow storage and plans for the vehicular entrance. Construction measures to meet the fire and building codes will also have to be approved.
