redistribution

There hasn't been a hint of Ontario plans to redistribute ridings, but Halton-Burlington MPP

Julian Reed expects it will happen before the next

"We haven't heard anything at all. There's no smell about redistribution. We all expect it has to be done before the next election," Reed declared

He noted the voting population of Halton-

Burlington swelled from 40,000 people in the 1979 vote to 52,000 in last year's election. Reed added

40,000 voters is "generally the upper edge" for a ..

Reed had no idea how the riding will be carved up, but chuckling he said he could see part of his riding being joined with part of Premier William

Davis' Brampton seat which might pit them
