Institute enjoys demonstration of pressed flowers

by Mrs. A.W. Beston Hannah, Doug and Mike in Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Frank spent a week holidaying Mrs. Ingram of Winnipeg has visited cousins Mrs. Roughley and Miss Brigham. Recently she has earned a university degree although up in years. Early in summer Mr. and Mrs. Swinkles had visitors from Holland to help celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary—a sister from Helmond and a sister-in-law from Bakel. Congratulations. But we also extend sympathy to them on the recent death of a sister-in-law at Stratroy.

Jeffrey Glynn of Regina visited his grandmother here in August and then went on to Bracebridge where he visited his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Whalen. The WI met at Limehouse Memorial Hall on Thursday evening. Roll call was well responded to by naming a flower and repeating a verse about it. Delegates appointed to the area convention Oct. 21 and 22 at Arthur will be Mrs. T.N. Anderson and Mrs. F.T.C. Brown who will be expected to use their own discretion in voting on resolutions. A $7 gift from each branch is expected for the gift stall. Mrs. Brown gave a short report on proceedings at the 85th anniversary of FWIO on Aug. 12.

Highlight of our meeting was a demonstration on making pressed flower cards by Mrs. Milton Bird who was very adept at the craft. She was thanked and given a little gift of appreciation by convener of the day, Mrs. Cannon. Plans were made for members to join Norval WI for a bus trip to the Kitchener market on September 8. We are very sorry to hear that J.W. Noble has been ill in hospital in Brampton, but hope that he will be better soon. Congratulations to Mary Lou Lindsay, who was married to Jim Prudden at St. Joseph's Church, Acton, on Saturday. Also congratulations to Wendy Patricia Hoekstra and Brian Lee Van Ek whose wedding was also on Sept. 4 in the Christian Reformed Church, Georgetown. The First Limehouse Scouting season will get underway this Wednesday, Sept. 8 with registration for all Sections at 7:30 p.m. in the Limehouse Memorial Hall.

Approve craft shop

Barbara Hurrelbrinck will operate a craft shop in her home at King Street and Highway 7 in Norval.

Halton Hills Committee of Adjustment gave their approval last week to the home occupation. She told the committee only one room would be used for the shop and explained there had been a tearoom in the house five years ago. Hurrelbrinck pointed out there is a large driveway on King Street which can be used for parking, and presented a petition signed by 18 residents backing her request.
