Daughters of Knox

Group meets after summer

The September meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held on September 13.

Vice-president Jane Robertson was in the chair and opened the meeting with a reading, after which "Living for Jesus" was sung, and the club's motto repeated.

Roll call was answered, and the members presented various items for the Craft show to be held at the A. C. Stewart Hall on Saturday October 23.

President Faye Pink announced that there are now nine associate members of the Daughters of Knox. It was decided that letters of welcome be sent to them, with suggestions of ways in which they might be of assistance to the regular members for the upcoming events this coming season.

President Faye also announced the dates of several WMS meetings scheduled for this fall.

The offering was received, and the offertory prayer given by Mary Findlay.

Some months ago, the young people of the United and Presbyterian churches put on two plays, directed by Mrs. Charles Beaton. These plays were videotaped and Jane Robertson showed them at our meeting.

The first film was entitled "Moses and the Freedom Fanatics" and the second one "It's Cool in the Furnace." These two excellent productions were much enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were then served by group leader Vivian Swallow and her group, and an hour of fellowship enjoyed.

Cherie Ambo entered the family goat Munchin in the pet show.
