

The Leaky Family entertained during the Friday Evening variety show. The family, 11 youngsters ranging from 18 years to three years old sang, played the piano, drums, guitar and fiddle, and danced. Their parents got a standing ovation when it was revealed they had had 11 children in 15 years.

The loud hum of model boats could be heard all over the park on Saturday and Sunday.

Cindy Harris of Acton with "Color Me Duke" took second place in the English Horse Show.

Acton Citizens' Band performed before the Friday evening show.

The Paul Brothers and Shirley entertained in song and skits.

Two-year-old Kris Cooper was decked out as a cowboy with his dog/horse Belle for the pet show.

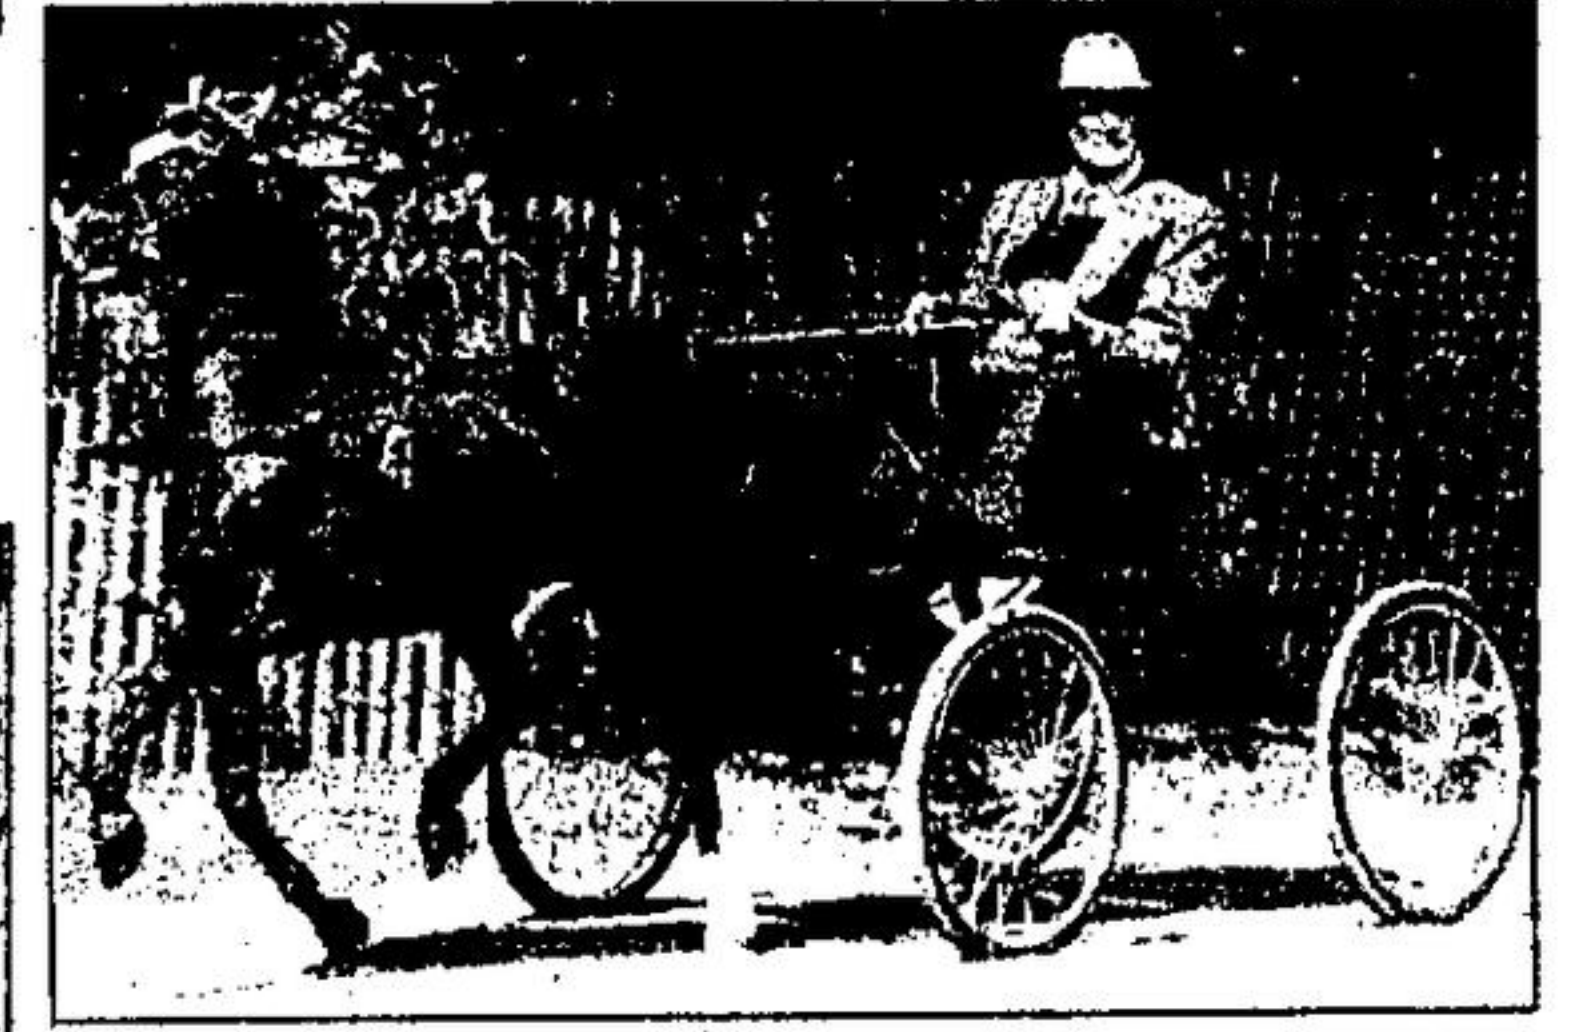

Ted Edmundson checks out the school work.

And that's entertainment...

Jordan Stevens was awed by the old lady in the Robertson Flower Shop display.

Shetland ponies were smartly groomed for Saturday's fine harness classes, here Bert Robertson, of Acton shows his pony.

Kari Garrett of Campbellville competed in the Hunter Under Saddle class of the horse show.

Len Medland and Jim Mitchell of Acton were in the log sawing contest

Ken Riggo from Milton competed in the Pioneer Games horse shoe pitching contest.

Bob Mitchell throws a ball of hay like a pillow in the Pioneer Games.

The Peel Shriners cart patrol was a big parade hit.

Donall Heigt and Chuck Mitchell were in the log sawing contest in Pioneer Games.

Bouncing in the castle was a midway treat for children.

Janet and Jennifer Goy enjoy the thrill of a ride.