

Businesspeople team member Ted Tyler grimaces.

Teachers' team star Fred Springer.

Terry Grubbe starred for the Councillors.

Drew Thomas Noble chews his first place ribbon while he and Mom Joan and Miss Acton Fall Fair Lisa Petty pose after he won in the boys' 4-6 month class. Lisa is a former Baby Show winner.

Don McDonald competed for the service club team.

Councillor Ross Knechtel shows the crowd how to extinguish a flame.

Councillor Dave Whiting moves the ball the hard way.

The stars don't always twinkle and shine

Winner in the 0-3 month class (girls) Sarah Roberts, poses with Mom Pearl and Miss Acton Fall Fair Lisa Petty.

Heather Ferguson poses with winning son Blair, first place boy in 13 to 18 month class.

June Janzen and Pam Sheldon wolf down bananas in the Battle of the Acton Stars events.

Ed Wood for the business people and Jim Davies of the Firefighters eat against the clock.

Amy Erin Royle and mom Lesley pose for pictures after she won the girls 4 to 6 month class.

Kristine Johnson, won girls show class. Mom is Nancy.

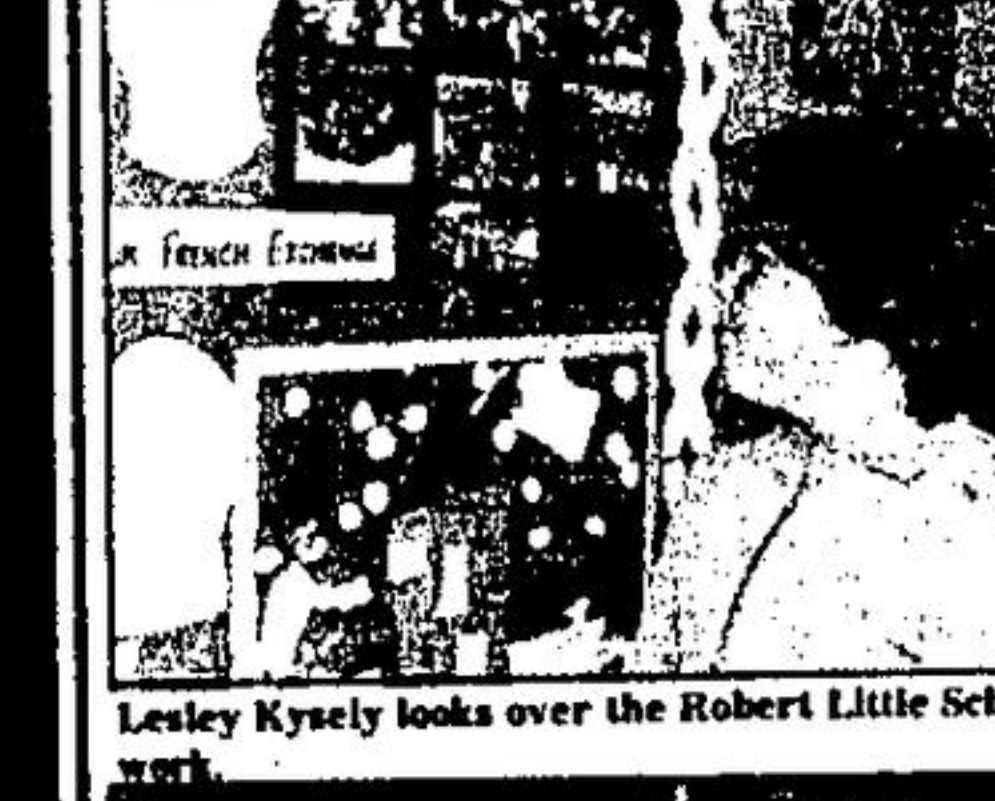

Heff and puff is what Heather Whiting of the Theta Phi Sorority did for her team.

Debbie MacDougall of the Free Press team is only slightly ahead of Keith Black of the Teachers' team.

George Bliden of Acton competed in the Pioneer Games log Splitting contest.

Lesley Kysely looks over the Robert Little School display.

Sarah Ens inspected the winning flowers.

Grandma knit these matching outfits to help Nicholas Tatham to win the boys 7 to 12 month class. Mom Teresa helps him pose.

Bert Dixon peers into the baked goods displays.

Bryan Michael McMillan boys 6-3 month class in Erika was pretty proud.

Christina Pilgrim does she was first place in 12 month category. Dad Ke...