Fashion tonight!

Don't miss the fashion shows tonight (Wednesday). At the John Elliott Theatre, Georgetown, the Rotary-Annes will be parading their fashions, while at Holy Cross auditorium, the Catholic Women's League will be putting on their fashion show. Both begin at 8 p.m.

Homecoming weekend

The Mountainview Baptist Church Homecoming Weekend will be Saturday, November 6 and Sunday November 7 (11 a.m. service). The speaker will be Dr. Ivan Morgan. Friends of the former first Baptist and St. Paul's Baptist Churches are invited to this celebration.

All those who are planning to attend the dinner on Saturday, November 6, please let Norma Thompson know by October 15, 1982. Call 877-2609.

First aid course

There will be a Red Cross first aid instruction course in Georgetown on October 15, 16 and 17, presented by the Halton Hills Recreation Department. Prerequisites include a current Standard First Aid, age 17 and teaching experience in any field.

This course may be of particular interest to swimming instructors, teachers, scout, brownie, guide or cub leaders. For more information call 877-5185 ext. 19 or 60.

Nuclear war film

The highly acclaimed film about the effects of nuclear war, "If You Love This Planet" will be shown on three consecutive nights in the area. The free screenings will be on Sunday, October 17 at the Norval United Church at 7.30 p.m., Monday, October 18 at the Trinity United Church in Acton at 8 p.m., and on Tuesday, October 19 at St. John's United Church, Georgetown, beginning at 8 p.m.

The film is not recommended for children. A discussion will follow the 25 minute film.

More fashion....

Halton Hills Christian Women's Fellowship will host a special evening at St. George's Anglican hall on Tuesday, October 19 at 8 p.m. The Olde Hide House of Acton will be presenting a fashion show of fall and winter clothes.

World traveller and successful business executive Betty Halgey of Cambridge will give a Christian perspective on "Women in the 80's." Dale and Gerry Philp of Oakville will provide the music.

Refreshments will be served. Tickets are $5 and can be bought at John Boughton Jewellers, Col-Craft, The Hope Chest and the Olde Hide House.

Happy birthday!

Come celebrate in style... The second annual entertainment gala, Something for Everyone, will begin on November 1 and go for the whole week until November 6 at the John Elliott Theatre.

A Canadian Traditional Electric Folk Band called Brigand will start the week off on Monday evening. Tuesday and Wednesday nursery, kindergarten and grade 1 pupils will be able to see Rumpelstiltskin.

Other events are Amateur night on Tuesday and Wednesday evening, a concert by Long John Baldry on Friday night, and the play Dick Whittington and his Cat presented to children Saturday morning. For more information call 877-5185 ext. 19 or 60.

Rummage sale

There will be a rummage sale on Sat. October 16 at St. Alban's Parish Hall in Glen Williams, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

New service

The Georgetown Lioness Club is offering a new service to the handicapped, senior citizens or single parents, like shopping trips, visitations, and household chores. Please send a request for these services to: Lioness B. Idzi, RR 1, Box 3360, Terra Cotta, Ontario L0P 1N0
