consider how they will cast their ballots. Councillors attend over 100 meetings a year in addition to many other functions and the mayor does even more. The mayor meets with prospective industries, deals with the federal and provincial governments and is in charge in the event of an emergency, etc. With an $2.1 million budget councillors have a "very responsible" job and are conducting important business so people should be responsible when they mark their ballot. Pomeroy noted in many communities their history has been torn down, but in ones where old buildings have been preserved they have become a focus for the downtown. The town hall is important to downtown Acton, and a way should be found to keep it, it's important to the integrity of the Town.

He questioned how his opponent is going to spend money on a community centre in the rural area and give money back to taxpayers at the same time. In answer to a question, Pomeroy said, no funds raised in Acton have been spent on the town hall yet, Actario money is sitting in the bank.

Large turnout

If the advance poll held Saturday is any indication there should be a large turnout election day, Monday November 8.

A total of 374 ballots were cast in Halton Hills, at the advance poll, compared to 146 in the 1980 election.

In Acton more than twice the number of voters took advantage of the advance poll, with 129 this time, compared to 60 last election.

At the Town office on Main Street, Georgetown, 190 votes were cast compared to 59 at the last election. At the Trafalgar Road administration building 56 voters turned out, while last election drew only 27.

The spirit of the town hall from years gone by, Paul Nielsen, drew the Actario tickets Saturday morning. Actario workers Stella Brunelle, Tracy Tyler and Ted Tyler also got in the spirit of the occasion by wearing masks.

Actario winners

An Inlington resident, Gauy Vettese, won the monthly Actario trip draw and has a choice of two vacations, a Las Vegas holiday or a trip to Acapulco.

The folks at Manes Country store shared the weekly draw for $350.

Ron and Helen Henry, Nelson Cr., won vouchers from IGA, Home Hardware, Acton Family Restaurant and Family Cleaners, while vouchers from Jug City, Family and Acton Bowling Lanes were won by Helen Murray, 55 Greenore Cres.

An afternoon fire in a bedroom at 269 McDonald Blvd. on Thursday is suspected to have been started by juveniles who were playing with matches, according to Deputy Chief Bob Hyde of Halton Hills Fire Department.

The mattress, bed, wall and carpet were burnt, but no injuries occurred. Estimated damage is $1,500.

There was a car fire around 4 p.m. Monday afternoon on Duby Rd.
