

Children dressed up in all sorts of costumes Saturday for the Rockwood Hallowe'en party at Rockwood.

Hallowe'en party big success

by Barbara Funk
Hallowe'en was a very quiet affair in the village this year. Many villagers commented on the large number of goblins they had knocking at their doors, while others were surprised at how few they treated. The Lionettes gave a Hallowe'en party at Rockwood Centre for Eramosa children on Saturday. They had approximately 200 children to entertain with games and songs while the pumpkins and costumes were judged. Costume winners were: Cheryl Thomson, Aaron Beattie, Heather Blair, Patrick Cleary and Debbie Storey. Honorable mention goes to Charity McDuffee, Tara Cameron, Todd Graham, Tracey Hilton, Jennifer Hawkins, Kristine Ingleson and Richard Ward.

In the pumpkin carving category, winners were Beth Kingsbury and David Nichol, Christie and Bradley Powell, Greg Shannon, Tim Deanne Kingsbury, Jenny Drexler, Jennifer McLean, Kristina Ingleson, Charity McDuffee, Jennifer Hawkins, Bryan March, Steven Thomson and Colleen Hammond.

Eramosa-Rockwood Firefighters responded to two calls on the weekend. The first, on Friday evening was to a car accident on Indian Trail and on Saturday night they attended the annual bridge burning in Eden Mills.

The Rockwood Soccer Club's annual meeting will be on Thursday, November 4 at 8 p.m. at St. John's Parish Hall. The new executive for the coming year will be elected that evening.

There will be a Remembrance Day service on Sunday, November 7, beginning at the cenotaph at 7 p.m. and continuing to Rockwood Centre. A lunch will be served following the service.

Eramosa public school is looking for a morning volunteer to help with word drills, math drills and reading. If you can assist please call Mrs. Gollett at the school, 854-4512.

Georgina Kelso from the Eramosa Community Library reminds us that the library will be closed November 11 for Remembrance Day.

New titles at the library are: in adult fiction—"The Case of Lucy Bending" by Laurence Sanders; "Different Seasons" by Stephen King; "Motive On Record" by Dell Shannon; "Open Secret" by James Leasor, and "Touch the Devil" by Jack Higgins.

Waldies wed

by J. Turner
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kerr observed their 50th wedding anniversary on October 29. A number of friends from Churchill CCCW called at the Kerr home on the Fifth Line, Monday evening. They brought a gold chrysanthemum for Archie and a gold-trimmed cup-and-saucer for Lydia, and spent a pleasant evening in front of a comfortable fire.

visiting with Lydia, looking at family photos, and recalling old times. Eleanor Thompson and Barb Crawford supplied a dainty lunch. The Kerrs raised three children, Betty Ann (Mrs. Bob Tyler) in California, Marie (Mrs. Donald Anderson) and Bob, both living nearby on the Fifth Line. There are seven grandchildren and one great-granddaughter. Archie has been in hospital in Hamilton for some time, a victim of Alzheimer's Disease.

Friends in the community extend very best wishes to Joan and Pat Waldie who were married in a pretty candlelight ceremony Friday evening at Churchill Community Church. The ceremony, attended by family and close friends, was performed by Rev. Emrys Jenkins, and was followed by a reception at the Waldie home at R.R. 2 Acton. Churchill's Annual Hallowe'en party attracted a good turnout of small spooks, big clowns, and lots of other comical characters. After prizes had been awarded for various categories of costume, games were played. Doris and Wally Ella had the children scrambling for candies, ducking for apples, eating donuts on a string, and all the traditional Hallowe'en activities. Ten scary Hallowe'en Jack O'lanterns were entered in the pumpkin carving contest. A delicious lunch brought the evening to a close. Many thanks are extended to Bill and Eleanor Thompson and Lydia Kerr who acted as judges, and to Marie Anderson who played her piano accordion for the costume parade.

Mrs. Elizabeth MacMillan has returned to her home at Mapleview Lodge after a two week visit with her daughter Marion in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Pantling recently returned from a three week holiday to Florida. They spent a week at Clearwater Beach, a week at St. Petersburg, and visited Maple Leaf Estates at Port Charlotte. Then they stopped off at a favorite spot at Myrtle Beach for a few days rest before returning home.

Friends in the community extend sincere sympathy to Mr. Henry Porte, R.R. 2 Acton, and family on the loss of his wife, Agnes who passed away Monday morning at Guelph General Hospital.

4-H girls making bread

by Doris Fines
The goblins and other creatures around Ospringe, must have been indulging in witch's brew, as they all turned out in full force Saturday evening, thus missing the wet and miserable Sunday night.

Mrs. Muriel White and Miss Marney Rumsey of Woodbridge, spent the weekend with their niece, Anne and Bruce Smith and their sons Brent and Kyle Craig.

The Sunday School children enjoyed a Hallowe'en party at the church Sunday morning. Thirty boys and girls bobbed for apples and took part in a mummy wrapping contest, and the parade and judging of costumes.

The 4-H Homemaking girls are busily baking bread these days. Group 1—Mimosa Sweet Dough Girls have eight members. Their officers are:

president—Carol Gustaw; vice president—Shirley Fletcher; secretary—Lynn Cole; treasurer—Susan Cole; and telephoner—Lisa Swackhamer. Under the direction of the leaders, Mrs. Margaret Goring and Mrs. Janice Maginess, they have been making Finnish health bread, 100 per cent whole wheat bread, potato bread, pizza, and sweet rolls. They meet Monday nights at Mimosa church. Group 2—Mimosa Loufers have five members. They have been making pizza, buttermilk bread, Finnish health bread, Deli rye bread, and their home projects were to make potato bread and teddy bear bread. The president is Wendy Bailey; vice president—Cheryl Misurka, secretary—Kelly Green; treasurer—Lynn Misurka; and press reporter—Kelly Green. The leaders of this group are Mrs. Sylvia Misurka and Mrs. Shirley Rowan, and they meet on Tuesday evenings at Mimosa church.

The gym at the school was filled with ghosts, pumpkins that walked, and evil spirits, on Friday afternoon at the annual school Hallowe'en parade. A large number of parents came to view the costumes and see the fun.

Prizes were given for the best costumes. The fanciest was Janice Root. The most original (and they really were) Chris Berner as a bunch of grapes, and Paul Jessop as a mop. The scariest was Mike Cosgrove and Jason Wrechuk. Funniest was Tammy Andrews as an old lady, Bobby Fletcher a clown, and Shane Adams a clown whose pants kept falling down. The most traditional costume was Sherri Coutts as a pumpkin and Sherri Howell as a cigar smoking ghost. The scariest, Sarah Berner and Nancy Dubois, and the best couple was Debbie Sinclair and Lori Van Manen, who were dressed as yellow chickens, and favoured the school with the actual chicken dance, which they had on tape.

Guelph OPP report the mishap occurred on Friday at 5:30 p.m.

Driver Injured

A Guelph man, Michael Bukelan, suffered head injuries and had to be removed from his car by firefighters after he lost control of his vehicle on Wellington County Rd. 44 and it flipped over in the ditch.

Guelph OPP report the mishap occurred on Friday at 5:30 p.m.
