Original costumes at hall dance

by Winifred Smith
Well, the ghosts, the goblins and the witches all made their rounds in the neighbourhood on Saturday night for trick or treat. The weather was much nicer than the Sunday evening.

The annual Halloween dance at the community centre on Saturday night, was as usual, a success, most couples came in costumes with some quite original. Several prizes were given out. The meal was good and the music excellent. Everybody reported a good time. Get your tickets early for the November 20 dance, as they go fast.

There was a large crowd out to church on Sunday, as fond relatives and friends came out to witness the Sacrament of Baptism. Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Cuthbert presented their two little daughters for baptism, also Mr. and Mrs. Paul Metcalfe presented their baby son. The church's annual turkey supper is this Saturday evening. We hear there are a few tickets yet to be sold. Enquire from Mrs. Bob Pinkerton, 877-3126.

The community was saddened this past week when they learned of the death of a long time resident, Mrs. S.G. Bennett. It was just a few months ago that Mr. Bennett passed away, after a prolonged illness. He was known far and wide for his prize winning Shorthorn cattle.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Hank Porte and his daughter Marion in the passing of their wife and mother, Agnes. She passed away Monday, Nov. 1. The Portes have lived for many years on the Sixth Line.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Aggie McEnery who is in hospital. We hope she will soon be able to return home.

Don't forget to come out to vote Monday, Nov. 8, at the Community Centre, 11 a.m. till 8 p.m.
