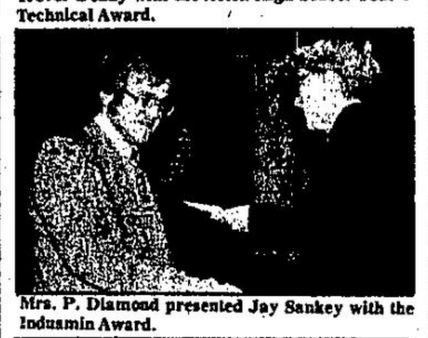
Diplomas, scholarships given at commencement

Paul Gorjup and Jane Trueman were the co-valedictorians at Friday's commencement.

Arlene Bruce presented Jay Kitching with the Halton Board of Education Achievement Award at Friday's commencement.

Murray Swanston presents Paul McTrash and Trevor Denny with the Acton High School Year 4 Technical Award.



Mrs. P. Diamond presented Jay Sankey with the Indusmin Award.

Barbara Hogenbirk walked off the big winner at Acton High School's annual commencement exercises Friday evening, winning $2,900 in awards and scholarships.

Jennifer Watson was the second highest earner with $1,237.50 in scholarships.

Parents and friends watched as 43 students received their Secondary School Honour Graduation Diplomas (Grade 13) and 143 received their grade 12 graduation diplomas.

Hogenbirk walked off with the University of Guelph Entrance Scholarship valued at $2,000 and the Alma Mater Entrance Scholarship in Human Kinetics worth $500. She received an additional $400 for the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce Scholarship and an Ontario Scholarship. She also was presented with the Outstanding Grade 13 Scholarship Award.

Watson received $1137.50 for the McMaster University Chancellors' Scholarship and $100 Ontario Scholarship.

Other awards and scholarships presented were:

Sharon Bendicks, the A.B. Foodland Award, Achilles Motors Scholarship and Teen Cuisine Award; Gwyneth Gibb, the John McHugh Jr. Memorial Outers Award; Roseanne DeVries, The James B. Ledger Proficiency Award; David Crewe-Read, The Acton Home Hardware Bursary; Jennifer Reast, Halton Hills Furniture and Appliances Award and Ontario Scholar.

Jane Trueman, Standard Products Athletics Award, E.G. Tyler Award and Ontario Scholar; Paul McTrash and Trevor Denny jointly shared both the Standard Products Technical Proficiency Award and the Acton High School Year 4 Technical Award; Greg Silcock, Standard Products English Award, Acton Pharmacy Award (shared with Marlene Lott), the Outers Award and Ontario Scholar; Karoline Gottschild, Standard Products French Award, Campbells Furniture Showroom Scholarship and Ontario Scholar; Harold Koehler, Sandra Patterson Memorial Award for Music, Beardmore Award.

Adam Thomas, Acton Lions Club Scholarship; Renata Brillinger, Human Interest Recognition; Jay Sankey, Indusmin Award; Marlene Lott, Acton Pharmacy Award (shared with Greg Silcock), Lakeside Chapter of the IODE Bursaries (shared with Heather Knapton) and Ontario Scholar; Gloria Walton, Clara Grindley Memorial Bursary, and Ontario Scholar; Heather Knapton, Lakeside Chapter of the IODE bursary (shared with Marlene Lott); Heather Thatcher, Amos Mason Rotary Scholarship.

David Johns, Acton High School staff scholarship; Steve Boysen, the Royal Canadian Legion Scholarship (shared with Barb Hogenbirk), and Ontario Scholar; Jaye Gerth and Jay Kitching, Halton Board of Education Achievement Award; Gord Springle, Broostad Memorial Art Award; Susan Auty, Fabric Shoppe Award; Dahlia Peterson, Outstanding Grade 12 Scholar Award; Heather Glenister, Kara Rosenquist and Mark Yates, Ontario Scholars.

The good times of the past four or five years were remembered by co-valedictorians Jane Trueman and Paul Gorjup. The pair recalled the streakers, and the Toilet Bowl, the bake sales and the "kidnapping" of two teachers.

Favorite teachers were recognized, as well as the more colorful students.
