Smith sisters surprised with joint party

by Winifred Smith
Mrs. Frances Buckrell was hostess for the November meeting of the WI held on Tuesday November 2, with all members except one and two visitors. Margaret Jamieson, president, opened the meeting by reading the aims and rules of the Scottish WI which are practised in their country. They are the original traditions based on the rules set out by the founder of Women's Institute, Mrs.

Hoodless, 85 years ago. As each one answered the roll call, members and guests received information on the care of house plants. The two delegates, who attended the area convention gave their reports. Alma Sinclair, as convener of Agriculture and Canadian Industry, had arranged for a special guest to demonstrate the art of making candy. Alma took over from the president. She called on Grace McEnery for current events. Some timely information was given as Conveners gave brief reports on their different categories. The motto, "Take Time to Stare, at the Wonders Everywhere," was given by Lile Given, as usual, in her own humorous and entertaining way. She ended her talk by reciting a poem which she composed. A most informative talk was given by Ada Kirkwood. She told some of the important and interesting facts on the Province of Quebec.

Alma then called on the special guest, Inez Creighton, from Limehouse. She had everything set up for a demonstration. The correct ingredients were outlined and the proper way to make chocolates was shown. It was fascinating to see her create turtles and chocolates with cherry centres. She also demonstrated how to make other Christmas goodies. Courtesy convener Eileen Burt, on behalf of those present thanked Mrs. Creighton for giving of her time at this busy time of the year. She was presented with a decorative plant. A touch and take table provided some extra money for welfare. Armistice Service A special Armistice Service was observed in the church on Sunday. Scouts, Cubs, Beavers, Girl Guides and Brownies attended with leaders. It provided a colorful sight, as they walked up the aisle carrying their different banners and flags. They occupied the four front seats of the sanctuary. Parents and friends with the regular church attendants made for a large congregation. A young group of junior choir members provided an appropriate anthem which was enjoyed. Rev. Bandy based his sermon on the sermon on the Mount. We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kennedy and family in the loss of his mother, who passed away on Friday of last week.

Two sisters were guests of honor at a birthday party on Saturday night, Edith Smith and Winifred Smith, sisters who married two brothers, (both now deceased) both have birthdays within a week of each other. Edith's was on Saturday November 6, Winifred's on November 11. Their families decided to have a joint celebration for the two birthdays on Saturday and it was a complete surprise. Edith and sister Winnie both thought they were keeping up the birthday in fine style by attending the supper. On returning home to the farm, both were overwhelmed to find the yard full of cars and on entering the home were greeted by their families, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren with one or two special friends, making a grand total of 42. Families were present from London, Cobourg, Kingston, St. Catharines and nearby surrounding areas.
