High School sports

Seniors in semi

The Acton High School Senior Girls' Basketball Team got their sweet revenge when they hammered White Oaks 50-31 in the first round of play-offs. White Oaks was the only team to defeat Acton in the regular season, in overtime.

Teresa Dunn was top shooter for Acton sinking 18 points. Mardi Phillips scored 15 points and Linda Osso picked up 12 points.

The Senior Girls travelled to M.M. Robinson in Burlington to compete in the basketball tournament, on Saturday. Acton defeated Caledonia 47-40 in their first game, but were eliminated in their second game, losing to J.A. Turner from Brampton 60-67.

Top shooters for Acton in the two games were Dunn with 30 points and Osso and Phillips with 25 points each.

Junior girls ousted

The Junior Girls Team was eliminated from the play-offs by Milton 46-19. Top shooters for Acton were Bob Tufford, Peggy Ancker, Carolynne Hoare and Angie Vuk, all scoring 4 points each.

Bowling teams

Acton High School competed in the Regional 5 Pin Tournament in Guelph last week.

The girls team of Teresa Dunn, Tracey Gordon, Christine Hoare, Marion Case, Bev Glenn and Shirley Van Rijk placed fourth out of 12 teams.

The boys team of Bruce Shannon, Tom Shannon, Jeff White, Scott Nowlan and Tony Wright placed eighth out of 11 teams.
