Curling sweeps

by Dave Dunn

The Business Men's Bonspiel was a great success over the past weekend. As usual, fun was first and foremost however competition for the top spots was fierce.

First draw winners: 1st, Fred Archibald, Pat Chamberlain, John Smits, Bill Matthews, 2nd, Bruce McArthur, Jim Plumtree, Steve McSweeney, Carmen Wright; 2nd Pete Vidler, Scott Somerville, Dave Dunn, Robert Filman.

Second draw winners: 1st, Dave Neely, Gino Boffo, George Workman, Bob Lindsay; 2nd, Dwayne Hay, Doug Leavens, Dave Dodwell, Don Graham; 3rd, Jerry Sproat, Bill Green, Garry Alcock, Doug Gillies.

Talk of the day was the unique ice surface laid in by Pete Vidler and his able assistant Scott Somerville. All the participants appreciated the opportunity of experiencing first hand how the "curl" got into Curling. While hiding out, Pete and Scott are debating the merits of trying for more pebble; or moving the hacks out 20 feet.

A couple of weekends ago Marion Smeaton, Phil Naylor and Joanne McArthur, under the direction of skip Scott Somerville placed third in a field of 18 rinks at Elora.

Scott and his team love to see their name in print, so we can expect very competitive curling from this rink as the season progresses.
